PLAINTIFFS' RESPONSE AND MEMORANDA IN OPPOSITION TO MOLCHAN DEFENDANTS' MOTION FOR SUMMARY JUDGMENT AND INCORPORATED MEMORANDUM OF LAW

Plaintiffs, P&S Associates, General Partnership ("P&S" or the "Partnership"), S&P Associates, General Partnership ("S&P") (collectively with P&S, the "Partnerships") and Philip Von Kahle as Conservator on behalf of P&S and S&P ("Conservator" or with the Partnerships, as the "Plaintiffs"), by and through their undersigned attorneys, file this Response and Memoranda in Opposition to the Molchan Defendants' (collectively, "Defendants") Motion for Summary Judgment and Incorporated Memorandum of Law (the "Motion").

I. INTRODUCTION

Seven grounds compel denial of the Motion:

1. Plaintiffs' fraudulent transfer claim was brought within one year of when it reasonably could have been discovered by the Conservator, as required by statute.

- 2. The evidence shows that Defendants have not withdrawn from the Partnership and that they must contribute to the Partnership at winding down as required by Fla. Stat. § 620.8807 or issues of fact remain as to their purported withdrawal.
- 3. Plaintiffs' claims were timely commenced in accordance with the Partnership Agreement, and they could not have been commenced sooner.
- 4. Defendants' receipt of distributions that it was not entitled to is a material breach of the Partnership Agreement.
- 5. The Partnerships were not limited partnerships, and Defendants' law regarding limited partnerships is not applicable.
 - 6. The Partnerships have standing to pursue their claims.
 - 7. The Partnerships are not obligated to indemnify Defendants.

II. STATEMENT OF FACTS

After approximately one year of litigation because of, inter alia, the fraudulent and improper activities of Michael Sullivan, the former Managing General Partner of the Partnerships, and others, a Conservator was appointed over the Partnerships.

Following Sullivan's removal in August 2012, this lawsuit was commenced, and Plaintiffs are now suing certain partners that received improper distributions from the Partnerships as a result of the bad acts of Sullivan and others. More specifically, this action names as defendants partners of the Partnerships who received, on a net basis, more money than they invested; i.e., 'Net Winners.' Defendants are such partners.

On or about March 10, 2014, Defendants filed the Motion seeking summary judgment in their favor. The following disputed issues of material fact prevent granting the Motion:

- Defendants received amounts from the Partnership in excess of its capital contributions to the Partnership while other partners of the Partnership received amounts from the Partnership less than their capital contributions.
- The Conservator could not have reasonably discovered the transfer of the improper distributions to Defendants prior to his appointment.
- A demand for the return of the amounts improperly received by Defendants could not have been made earlier than the appointment of Margaret Smith as Managing General Partner.
- The discovery of the Madoff fraud could not have reasonably led to the discovery of the claims against Defendants by the Conservator.
- The Complaint demonstrates that Defendants acted with fraudulent intent.
- The Partnership did not begin winding down until after the appointment of the Conservator.
- Defendants did not withdraw from the Partnership or waived their right to withdraw.

These disputed facts weigh in favor of denying Defendants' motion for summary judgment for the reasons set forth below.

III. LEGAL STANDARD

In deciding Defendants' motion for summary judgment, this Court must draw every possible inference in Plaintiffs' favor. Bratt ex rel. Bratt v. Laskas, 845 So.2d 964, 966 (Fla. 4th DCA 2003) ("All doubts and inferences must be resolved against the moving party, and if there is the slightest doubt or conflict in the evidence, then summary judgment is not available") (citation omitted).

Pursuant to Florida Rule of Civil Procedure 1.510, Summary Judgment may only be granted "if the pleadings, depositions, answers to interrogatories, and admissions on file, together with the affidavits, if any, show that there is no genuine issue as to any material facts and that the moving party is entitled to a judgment as a matter of law." Fla. R. Civ. P. 1.510(c); Major Leagues Baseball v. Morsani, 790 So. 2d 1071 (Fla. 2001). The required showing is initially borne by the moving party – here, Defendants –, and "only where the movant tenders competent evidence in support of his motion does the burden shift to the other party to come forward with opposing evidence." Id. (citing Lenhal Realty, Inc. v. Transamerica Comm. Fin. Corp. 615 So. 2d 207 (Fla. 4th DCA 1993)). Further, it is not sufficient to merely assert that an issue does exist – a party must produce evidence to support its contention. Noack v. B.L. Walters, Inc., 410 So. 2d 1375, 1376 (Fla. 5th DCA 1982); Reflex N.V. v. UMET Trust, 336 So. 2d 473, 475 n. 1 (Fla. 3d DCA 1976).

IV. ARGUMENT

A. The Statute of Limitations Does Not Preclude Plaintiffs' Claim for Fraudulent Transfer

The crux of Defendants' argument that Plaintiffs' Fla. Stat. § 726.105(1)(a) claim is time barred is that the Partnerships discovered or could have discovered Defendants' receipt of improper distributions in December 2008 when Madoff was revealed as a fraud, or January 2009, at the latest, when Chad Pugatch, the alleged attorney for the Partnerships, was notified of the existence of net winners and net losers, and this action was not commenced within 1 year of that date. Defendants rely on an affidavit of Chad Pugatch, and a transcript of a meeting where it was suggested that there could be "net winners" and "net losers". Plaintiffs have now procured a counter affidavit of Chad Pugatch creating multiple issues of disputed materials facts precluding summary judgment. Additionally, Defendants' argument (i) misunderstands when a cause of action accrues under Fla. Stat. § 726.105(1)(a) and (ii) demonstrates that summary judgment is improper on this issue due to the numerous issues of material fact raised by Defendants' argument.

Although there was a meeting presided over by Pugatch (who also may have acted as Sullivan's attorney)¹ where it was stated that there could be net winners and losers in the Partnerships (which could have been a reference to the Madoff fraud as a whole and not the Partnerships) he did not know the specific identity of any of "net winners" at that time. See Counter Pugatch Aff. at ¶¶ 5-7 (Exhibit 2). More importantly, Plaintiffs' Counter-Affidavit creates material issues of fact which preclude any entry of summary judgment on the basis of statute of limitations. Such issues of fact include:

- Whether Pugatch's statements could have led to the discovery of the fraudulent nature of the transfers because the transfers in and of themselves would not trigger the statute of limitations;
- Whether Pugatch in actuality represented Sullivan as opposed to the Partnerships (Exhibit 1);
- Whether Pugatch had access to the Partnerships' books and records; and thus
- Whether the fraudulent transfer claims could reasonably be discovered without Sullivan providing access to the books and records of the Partnerships, which did not occur until the Conservator's appointment.

In any case, the discovery of the Madoff fraud in December 2008 could not have reasonably led to the discovery of the nature of the transfers at issue in this action, and therefore the 1 year statute of limitations does not run from that date. This lawsuit is not based on the amounts that the Partnerships lost in conjunction with the Madoff fraud. Instead, it is based on the amounts that Defendants and others improperly received from the capital contributions of others, and so in actuality the statute of limitations runs from the date that those breaches could have been discovered – not the discovery of the Madoff fraud. Those claims could not have been discovered until Sullivan was compelled to turn over the complete books and records of the Partnerships, which did not occur until after the Conservator's appointment, and subsequent to several Orders of this Court. Mukamal Aff. at ¶ 3-5 (Exhibit 3); Von Kahle Aff. at ¶ 3-11 (Exhibit 4); Smith Aff. at ¶ 3 (Exhibit 5). Immediately after Sullivan's improper conduct came to light, the instant action was initiated.²

5 ≣ Berger Singerman

Sullivan may have known that he and some of his associates withdrew more money than they invested but there is no evidence that he knew the identities of net winners and losers within the partnerships or the amounts they received. Although there is a chance that Sullivan was aware of the various net winners who benefitted through his breaches of fiduciary duties, he refused to bring claims against those net winners and it was not until he was removed and a Conservator, was appointed and then became a claimant that they could be pursued.

What Chad Pugatch or his client Sullivan (who breached his fiduciary duties and caused the improper distribution) knew in January 2009 is irrelevant because the determining fact for purposes of the statute of limitations on the fraudulent transfer claim is whether the transfer could have been discovered by "the claimant" – and in this case: the claimant is Conservator. See Fla. Stat. § 726.110 ("cause of action with respect to a fraudulent transfer or obligation under ss.

The majority of courts that have interpreted statutes which are analogous to Fla. Stat. § 726.110(1), have held that the "one-year savings provision does not begin to accrue until the discovery of the fraudulent nature of the transfer[,]" as opposed to when the transfer occurred. See Western Hay v. Laurel Fin. Invs., Ltd., (Fla. 4th DCA 2011) (emphasis in original). The basis for this holding is that the Uniform Fraudulent Transfer Act, was intended to "codify an existing but imprecise system whereby transfers that were intended to defraud creditors could be set aside." Freeman, 865 So. 2d at 1276. In other words, the "fraudulent act" in the context of fraudulent transfer actions, is "the clandestine act of hiding money . . . to the exclusion of [a] plaintiff." See, e.g., Steinberg ex rel. Lancer Management Group LLC v. Alpha Fifth Group, 2010 WL 1332840, at *2 (S.D. Fla. Mar. 30, 2010) (quoting Gulf Coast Produce, Inc. v. Am. Growers, Inc., 07-cv-80633, 2008 WL 660100, at *5 (S.D. Fla. Mar 7 2008)).

726.101-726.112 is extinguished unless action is brought: . . . within 1 year after the transfer or obligation was or could reasonably have been discovered by the claimant.") (emphasis added).

Prior to the appointment of the Conservator, the Partnerships could not have been claimants because they did not have standing to pursue their claims because they were not their own creditors. However, "after a corporation has been placed into a receivership, it becomes a creditor with respect to assets which were fraudulently transferred away." Sallah ex rel. MRT. LLC v. Worldwide Clearing LLC, 860 F. Supp. 2d 1329, 1335 (S.D. Fla. 2011) (applying Florida law) (internal citations omitted); Freeman v. Dean Witter Reynolds, Inc., 865 So. 2d 543, 551 (Fla. 2d DCA 2003) (citing Scholes v. Lehmann, 56 F. 3d 750, 754 (7th Cir. 1995); Schacht v. Brown, 711 F.2d 1343 (7th Cir. 1983)). As the Partnerships could not become claimants as defined by Fla. Stat. § 726.105 until after the Conservator's appointment, the fraudulent transfers could not have been reasonably discovered by the Partnerships as claimants until that time. See Martin Marietta Corp. v. Gould, Inc., 70 F.3d 768, 772 (4th Cir.1995) ("[T]he wrongdoers' control results in the concealment of any causes of action from those who otherwise might be able to protect the corporation").

In other words, because Defendants have failed to conclusively demonstrate that the claimaint could have reasonably discovered those claims beginning in 2009 or earlier (and the Conservator could not!) it is therefore improper to grant summary judgment. See DESAK v. Vanlandingham, 98 So. 3d 710, 713-15 (Fla. 1st DCA 2012) (Reversing summary judgment because there was insufficient evidence to demonstrate discovery of transfer); Bratt ex rel. Bratt v. Laskas, 845 So.2d 964, 966 (Fla. 4th DCA 2003) ("All doubts and inferences must be resolved against the moving party, and if there is the slightest doubt or conflict in the evidence, then summary judgment is not available") (citation omitted).

BERGER SINGERMAN

Given that the Conservator did not become a claimant until his appointment and there are issues of material fact as to what was known when by Pugatch, summary judgment is improper.

B. Plaintiffs Have Standing to Pursue Their Fraudulent Transfer Claims

Defendants claim that Plaintiffs lack standing to pursue their fraudulent transfer claims because they cannot simultaneously be creditors and debtors. Despite Defendants' contentions, corporations may bring claims "directly against the principals or the recipients of fraudulent transfers of corporate funds to recover assets rightfully belonging to the corporation and taken prior to the receivership." Freeman v. Dean Witter Reynolds, Inc., 865 So. 2d 543, 551 (Fla. 2d DCA 2003) (citing Scholes v. Lehmann, 56 F. 3d 750, 754 (7th Cir. 1995); Schacht v. Brown, 711 F.2d 1343 (7th Cir. 1983)). "In other words, after a corporation has been placed into a receivership, it becomes a creditor with respect to assets which were fraudulently transferred away." Sallah ex rel. MRT. LLC v. Worldwide Clearing LLC, 860 F. Supp. 2d 1329, 1335 (S.D. Fla. 2011) (applying Florida law) (internal citations omitted).

Defendants also argue that Plaintiffs lack standing to pursue fraudulent transfer claims because the claims allegedly should be asserted by partners who lost their investments. But Defendants misunderstand the state of Florida jurisprudence. Here, Plaintiffs have standing to pursue claims for fraudulent transfers against those persons or entities who received them, as if they were creditors. See Freeman, 865 So. 2d at 551; Sallah, 860 F. Supp. 2d at 1335. Accordingly, they have standing to pursue the instant claims as if they were "net losers" in this action.³

Because the Partnerships are creditors — and by virtue of the Conservator's appointment, they are in fact creditors — Plaintiffs have standing to pursue the instant claims. Moreover, because it was not until the Conservator was appointed in this matter, that the fraudulent transfer claims could be pursued, Defendants' by virtue of their argument concerning standing have conceded the timeliness of Plaintiffs' fraudulent transfer claims.

■ BERGER SINGERMAN

³ Defendants also disingenuously state that because "Plaintiffs did not deny that all distributions [they] received from P&S came from monies received from BLMIS[,]" even though Plaintiffs objected to that request for admission.

C. Defendants Have Not Withdrawn From the Partnership and Thus Cannot Escape Plaintiffs' Claims related to Fla. Stat. § 620.8807

The Motion should be denied because there is an issue of fact as to whether Defendants in fact withdrew from the Partnership. Defendants argue that they are entitled to summary judgment as to Plaintiffs' claims related to Fla. Stat. § 620.8807 because (1) they allegedly withdrew (or dissociated) from the Partnership and (ii) because Fla. Stat. § 620.8807 does apply because Fla. Stat. § 620.8603(1) states that "[i]f a partner's dissociation results in dissolution and winding up of the partnership business, ss. 620.8801-620.8807 apply; otherwise ss. 620.8701-620.8705 apply" and Defendants' alleged withdrawal didn't cause the Partnerships to wind up. These arguments are meritless because disputed issues of fact exist as to Defendants' withdrawal and because Fla. Stat. § 620.8603(1) does not apply.⁴

Defendants Susan Molchan and Thomas Whiteman claim that by virtue of a letter they sent on January 26, 1997 or 1998 they disassociated from the Partnership, which creates an issue of fact as to whether she actually withdrew. See Exhibit 6. That letter does not state the Defendant wished to dissociate from the Partnership nor does it say that Defendant Susan E. Molchan or Thomas Whiteman wished to withdraw from the Partnership. Id. Moreover,

⁴ Although Defendant does not concede that a claim for breach of statutory duty exists under Fla. Stat. § 620.8807 (Count I), Defendant contends, without any legal basis, that there is no independent statutory cause of action under Fla. Stat. § 620.8807 (Count II). The legislature's intent to establish a cause of action under this statute is evidenced by the uniform comment to the statute which provides that "a partnership may enforce a partner's obligation to contribute." See Fla. Stat. § 620.8807 Unif. Comment 4. This intent is also established by Fla. Stat. § 620.8405 which provides in relevant part that "[a] partnership may maintain an action against a partner for a breach of the partnership agreement, or for the violation of a duty to the partnership, causing harm to the partnership." There is no question that Fla. Stat. § 620.8807 establishes a duty to the Partnerships, and therefore can be enforced as a statutory cause of action. See also Glick v. Retamar, 922 So. 2d 1108 (Fla. 4th DCA 2006) (recognizing application of partnership agreement and Fla. Stat. § 620.8807 in arbitration.); In re Kane, 470 B.R. 902, 936n. 8 (Bankr. S.D. Fla. 2012) (noting that Fla. Stat. § 620.8807 limits an insolvent partnership's ability to make distributions.)

Defendant Susan E. Molchan and Thomas Whiteman received an additional distribution after they received funds pursuant to the January 26 letter — assuming it was written in 1998, (See Exhibit 7) which means that even if Defendant intended to disassociate from the Partnership by its letter, Defendant either changed its mind or waived that intent by continuing to receive a distribution. See LeNeve v. Via South Fla., LLC, 908 So. 2d 530, 535 (Fla. 4th DCA 2005) (waiver "may be express, or implied from conduct or acts that lead a party to believe a right has been waived") (internal citations omitted).

Likewise, it is unclear whether the Defendant Alex E. Molchan Revocable Trust withdrew from the Partnerships, because (i) Alex E. Molchan, and not the trust wrote a letter stating that he desired his account to be closed; (ii) the letter did not state that Alex E. Molchan wished to dissociate or withdraw from the Partnership but "requested that the full amount" be sent to him (Exhibit 8); and (iii) Alex E. Molchan received a distribution a year after he had purportedly withdrawn from the Partnerships. Exhibit 9.

Moreover, whether Defendant Janet B. Molchan Revocable Trust ever withdrew from the Partnership is a material issue of fact because she did not express her purported intent to withdraw in writing as required by the Partnership Agreements. Instead the only letter that Janet Molchan — and not the trust — wrote the Partnerships, stated that she had a conversation about the closing of her account, and that she would like to close her account "when [Sullivan] liquidate[s] the partnership." (Exhibit 10.) As Sullivan never liquidated the Partnership, and Defendant Janet B. Molchan Revocable Trust never wrote a subsequent letter affirming its intent to withdraw, it is unclear if it in fact withdrew, or waived its right to withdraw. See LeNeve, 908 So. 2d at 535.

Furthermore, Defendants' citation to Section 4.05 of the Partnership Agreement as the section governing disassociation ignores that it is the requirements of Section 9.02 that govern the withdrawal of a partner, and under that section, even if Defendants intended to sell their investment, such an act does not equate with withdrawal because Defendants did not execute any required documents, or provide notice to the other partners of their withdrawal from the Partnership in accordance with Section 14.06, which means that the Court, cannot, at this juncture, enter summary judgment based on of Defendants' allegation that they withdrew.⁵

Irrespective of whether Defendants did withdraw (and it is disputed whether they did), the duties to make contributions at winding up imposed by Fla. Stat. § 620.8807 apply to Defendants because Defendants' duty to return the improper distributions to the Partnership under Fla. Stat. § 620.8807 is preserved by virtue of Section 10.02 of the Partnership Agreement.⁶

Here, Defendants' alleged withdrawal qualifies as an "assignment, transfer OR TERMINATION of a defaulting Partner's INTEREST" under Section 10.02 because Article Nine of the Partnership Agreements defines the circumstances where a partner's interest would be transferred or assigned, and explicitly includes the "Withdrawal of Partners" as a circumstance that constitutes a transfer or assignment. Additionally, Defendants are clearly defaulting partners by virtue of their receipt of improper distributions and failure to remit payment to P&S after receiving notice of the fact that it was not entitled to retain funds received, and its alleged withdrawal does not affect its obligations to the Partnership at winding up. Thus,

⁶ Section 10.02 of the Partnership Agreement provides in relevant part that "[n]o assignment, transfer OR TERMINATION of a defaulting Partner's INTEREST as provided in this Agreement shall relieve the defaulting partner from any personal liability for outstanding indebtedness, liabilities, liens or obligations relating to the Partnership that may exist on the date of the assignment, transfer, OR TERMINATION."

Defendants are obligated to "contribute to the partnership an amount equal to any excess of the charges over the credits in the partner's account," as is required by Fla. Stat. § 620.8807 regardless if Defendant withdrew from the Partnership.

Moreover, Fla. Stat. § 620.8603 does not limit Defendant's obligations in because that statute was waived by Section 10.02 of the Partnership Agreements. Defendants cite Fla. Stat. § 620.8603 for the proposition that Fla. Stat. § 620.8807 is not applicable because the Partnership did not wind up as a result of their alleged withdrawal. However, pursuant to Fla. Stat. § 620.8103, "[t]o the extent that the partnership agreement does not provide otherwise, this act governs."

The plain language of Section 10.02 conflicts with Fla. Stat. § 620.8603, in that Section 10.02 preserves liability, so long as it was incurred at the time of dissociation. Thus, Section 10.02 prevails over Fla. Stat. § 620.8603(1) and governs the relationship between Defendant and the Partnerships.

Defendants' duty under Fla. Stat. § 620.8807 is also supported by Fla. Stat. § 620.8703, which provides that a "partner's dissociation does not, by itself, discharge a partner's liability for partnership obligation incurred before dissociation." Because Defendants' obligation to the Partnership arose before Defendants' purported dissociation – due to the improper distributions that they received as a partner – Defendants are under a duty to return the improperly retained funds, and that duty is not affected by Defendants' claims that they withdrew or dissociated from the Partnerships by virtue of Section 10.02 of the Partnership agreement, even though Plaintiffs dispute their withdrawal.

Accordingly, it is improper to grant Summary Judgment as to Counts I and II of the Second Amended Complaint.

12 SINGERM

D. There is a Dispute as to Whether Defendant Breached the Partnership Agreement

Defendants appear to argue that there can be no material breach of the Partnership Agreement unless Defendants acted with "intentional wrongdoing, fraud, and breaches of fiduciary duties of care and loyalty," and Defendants make this argument without presenting any evidence in support of its claim — which in and of itself mandates denial of Defendants' motion. See Craven v. TRG Boynton Beach, Ltd., 925 So. 2d 476, 479 (Fla. 4th DCA 2006) (Denying summary judgment because moving party failed to meet its initial burden).

It is hard to believe that Defendants' unauthorized receipt of distributions that other partners did not receive is not a material breach of the Partnership Agreement because the receipt of distributions from the Partnerships by the partners was the essence of the Partnership Agreement. Defendants bear the burden of proof in showing a material breach of the Partnership Agreement is limited to the circumstances it sets forth above, and they has presented no evidence to refute the allegations in the Complaint.⁷

Additionally and as previously discussed, Section 10.02 provides a basis to hold Defendants liable regardless of their purported dissociation.

E. There is an Issue of Fact as to Whether Section 14.03 Limits Defendant's Liability

Defendants argue that Plaintiffs' claims are barred by Section 14.03 of the Partnership Agreement because it provides that "THE PARTNERS SHALL BE LIABLE ONLY FOR ACTS AND OMISSIONS INVOLVING INTENTIONAL WRONGING, FRAUD, AND BREACHES OF FIDUCIARY DUTIES." Defendants' interpretation of the language in Section 14.03 is self-serving, and the ambiguous language of Section 14.03 should instead be interpreted "in the light most favorable to plaintiffs." Hitt v. North Broward Hosp. Dist., 387 So. 2d 482, 483 (Fla. 4th DCA 1980).

Here, Plaintiffs' claims are not precluded by Section 14.03. Defendants intentionally wronged the Plaintiffs and breached their fiduciary duties when they elected to retain distributions which they would not have otherwise been entitled to by refusing to comply with demand letters that it received in 2012 and 2013.8

Because, Defendants did not produce a single piece of evidence that they have not breached their fiduciary duties by failing to contribute the required amounts, they are not entitled to the protection of Section 14.03 at this juncture.

Additionally, Defendants argue, without providing any evidence in support of their contentions, that they are entitled to summary judgment under Section 14.03 of the Partnership Agreement because they allegedly acted in good faith. However, Defendants are not entitled to summary judgment as to that issue because "good or bad faith is a factual determination based on the circumstances of the particular case[,]" and in and of itself presents a material issue of fact. See Duval Cty. Sch. Bd. v. Fla. Pub. Emp. Relations Comm., 353 So. 2d 1244 (Fla. 1st DCA 1978).

F. Plaintiffs' Breach of Contract Claim Is Timely

Defendants argue that they cannot be held liable for breach of contract because they received the distributions at issue in 2001 at the latest.

BERGER SINGERMAN

Additionally, the Complaint alleges that Sullivan intentionally wronged the Partnerships, and breached his fiduciary obligations to the Partnerships, by making improper distributions to certain Partners, and that the damages sought against Defendants here arose from those breaches and wrongdoings. It was those breaches and wrongdoings that lead to the improper distributions received and retained by Defendants, and the plain text of Section 14.03 states that a Partner may be liable, regardless of who acted intentionally so long as the "acts and/or omissions" "involv[ed]" intentional wrongdoing, fraud, or a breach of fiduciary duties[,]" – as they do here.

Regardless of the dates that Defendants received the distributions at issue, Article 10.01 of the Partnership Agreement sets forth the instances when a partner materially breaches the Partnership Agreement. Among other events, Article 10.01(b) of the Partnerships states that "the violation of any of the other provisions of this Agreement and failure to remedy or cure that violation within (10) days after written notice of the failure from the Managing General Partners" shall be deemed to be a default by a Partner.

In other words, a material breach of the Partnership Agreements does not occur until a partner fails to remedy or cure the conduct specified by notice under Article 10.01(b), as they are under no obligation to remedy or cure their violation until they receive that notice.⁹

"[W]hen a default clause contains a notice provision, it must be strictly followed." In re Colony Square Co, 843 F.2d 479, 481 (11th Cir. 1988); Abecassis v. Eugene M. Cummings, P.C., 09-81846-CIV, 2010 WL 9452252, at *5 (S.D. Fla. June 3, 2010) ("The Agreement specifically required notice of any alleged breach, as well as an opportunity to cure said breach. A party may not sue for breach of contract where the party failed to comply with the requirements of the contract's default provision").

"As a general rule of contract law, where the contract requires a demand as a condition to the right to sue, the statute of limitations does not commence until such a demand is made." Greene v. Bursey, 733 So. 2d 1111, 1115 (Fla. 4th DCA 1999). Although a plaintiff cannot unreasonably delay the provision of such a demand, whether the plaintiff's delay in making it was reasonable is a question of fact, which is addressed by the affirmative defense of laches. Id.

at 1116. For that reason, the Greene Court reversed a trial court's order granting summary iudgment.¹⁰

Additionally, and another reason why Plaintiff's claims accrued in November 2012, is that Defendant's refusal to return its distributions breached Article 10.01(g) of the Partnership Agreements. Article 10.01(g) provides in relevant part that a Partner is in default if it "COMMIT[S] OR PARTICIPATES IN ANY . . . INJURIOUS ACT OR OMISSION, WANTONLY, WILLFULLY, RECKLESSLY, OR IN A MANNER WHICH WAS GROSSLY NEGLIGENT AGAINST THE PARTNERSHIP[.]" (Exhibits A and B to the Complaint at ¶ 10.05).

When Defendants failed to return the improper distributions that they received within 10 days of Ms. Smith's November 13 letter, they committed a willful act that caused monetary injury to the Partnership. That refusal caused a default under Article 10.05 and Plaintiffs' above claims accrued on November 23, 2012.

G. Plaintiffs' Causes of Action for Unjust Enrichment and Money Had and Received Did Not Accrue Until November 23, 2012

While there is no issue of fact as to the date that Defendants received the distributions at issue, Defendants' statute of limitations argument with respect to these three claims fails because it wrongly assumes that Plaintiffs' above claims accrued on the date that Defendants received the last improper distribution.

In this case, Plaintiffs' claims for unjust enrichment, and money had and received did not accrue until November 23, 2012 – when Defendants failed to correct their violations of the ¹⁰ In the same way that the statute of limitations does not commence until a demand is made for payment, the Florida Supreme Court held in State Farm Mut. Auto. Ins. Co. v. Lee, 678 So.2d 818, 821 (Fla.1996) that a breach of contract claim for recovery of insurance benefits did not accrue at the time of the accident, but accrued at the time that the insurer failed to pay. The Court's reasoning was that it is "apparent that, pursuant to the statute, the insurer has no obligation to pay benefits to the insured until thirty days after receipt of the insured's claim." State Farm Mut. Auto. Ins. Co. v. Lee, 678 So. 2d 818, 820 (Fla. 1996).

Partnership Agreements within 10 days of receiving notice of such violations – because Defendants previously were not required to return the improper distributions at that juncture as no demand was made for them. On November 13, 2012, and after succeeding Sullivan as Managing General Partner, Margaret J. Smith, in her capacity as Managing General Partner, sent Defendants' letter that stated Defendants' receipt of funds in excess of contributions constituted a violation of the Partnership Agreements. The letter further provided that Defendants had the opportunity to cure their violation of those Agreements by remitting payment within 10 days. Until Defendants received that notice, they were not required to repay the improper distributions received. However, when Defendants refused to return the improper distributions they received within 10 days of receipt of the letter, Plaintiffs' claims accrued from that date.

Thus, it was not until Defendants refused to return the improper distribution in response to Ms. Smith's demand letter that the last element necessary to complete a cause of action for unjust enrichment and money had and received occurred. Bedwell v. Rucks, 4D11-3532, 2012 WL 5349381 (Fla. 4th DCA Oct. 31, 2012) ("A cause of action accrues when the last element necessary to complete it occurs") (citing § 95.031(1), Fla. Stat. (2010)).

With respect to Plaintiffs' claim for unjust enrichment, Defendants did not accept and retain the improper distribution under circumstances that made it inequitable for Defendants to retain it without paying the value thereof until Defendants were notified by Ms. Smith that they received improper distributions and refused to return them. See AMP Servs. Ltd. v. Walanpatrias Found., 73 So. 3d 346, 350 (Fla. 4th DCA 2011); see also Banks v. Lardin, 938 So. 2d 571, 574 (Fla. 4th DCA 2006) (holding that a claim for unjust enrichment accrues when the last element constituting a cause of action occurs.).

11 The obligation however, did exist at the time of their dissociation.

17 ≛ Berger Singerman

¹² The Demand letter also permitted Defendant to make a discounted payment to the Partnerships.

Similarly, Defendants were not required to return the improper distributions to the Partnerships in good conscience until it received the demand letter from Ms. Smith. Calhoun v. Corbisello, 100 So. 2d 171, 173 (Fla. 1958) (stating cause of action for money had and received as "the recovery of money which the appellees, in good conscience, should pay to appellant.")

Further, because the Partnerships were incapable of bringing a claim against themselves until after the Conservator's appointment, it is unlikely that the Court will find the delay in demanding the return of money to be unreasonable.

The Third Amended Complaint provides that Defendants owed a fiduciary duty to the Partnerships to account for and hold in trust partnership property and that the distributions it received constitute partnership property. Compl. at ¶110. The Third Amended Complaint goes on to state that by failing to remit payment of those amounts in connection with the winding up of the Partnerships, Defendants breached their fiduciary duties. Compl. at ¶112. As that claim accrued upon the winding up of the Partnerships, and not at the time that the distributions were made, it is improper to grant summary judgment as to Count VII as well. ¹³

Accordingly, Plaintiffs' above claims accrued when Defendants refused to return its distributions in response to Ms. Smith's demand letter, and not when Defendants received the improper distributions. It is therefore improper to grant summary judgment based on the statute of limitations.

I. Counts III and IV Are Properly Pled in the Alternative

Defendants claim that Counts III and IV of the Complaint should be dismissed because a plaintiff cannot recover for claims of unjust enrichment and money had and received where an express contract exists covering the same matter. (Motion at 7). This argument ignores well settled law allowing a plaintiff to plead in the alternative.

BERGER SINGERMAN

Pursuant to Florida Rule of Civil Procedure 1.110(g), a pleader "may set up in the same action as many claims or causes of action or defenses in the same right as the pleader has, and claims for relief may be stated in the alternative." Banks v. Lardin, 938 So. 2d 571, 577 (Fla. 4th DCA 2006) (quoting Fla. R. Civ. P. 1.10(g)); DiChristopher v. Bd. of Cnty. Com'rs, 908 So. 2d 492, 493 (Fla. 5th DCA 2005) ("A Plaintiff may . . . demand judgment in his favor on several bases, even mutually exclusive ones."). Moreover, even if a plaintiff is required to elect a cause of action, "the election of a claim would not logically occur at this stage. In re Estate of Trollinger, 9 So. 3d 667, 668 (Fla. 2d DCA 2009); Banks, 938 So. 2d at 577 ("[Defendant] argues that . . . no cause of action can exist where there is also alleged to be an express contract concerning the same subject matter . . . The trial court did not grant summary judgment on this ground and we find, at this point in the proceedings, the trial court may not determine the inconsistency of the claims pled."); ¹⁴

The fact that the terms of the Partnership Agreements provide for certain distributions does not preclude Plaintiffs from asserting claims for unjust enrichment or money had and received in the alternative. Defendants rely on Berry v. Budget Rent A Car Sys., Inc., 497 F. Supp. 2d 1361 (S.D. Fla. 2007), and Diamond "S" Dev. Corp. v. Mercantile Bank, 989 So. 2d 696, and argue that a claim for unjust enrichment or for money had and received cannot be maintained where there is an express contract concerning the same subject matter. ¹⁵ However,

¹⁴ As courts apply a more stringent standard in granting a motion to dismiss than a motion for summary judgment, the holding in Banks is applicable to the instant Motion. See Fla. R. Civ. P. 1.510.

¹⁵Defendant also misstates the law in its selective quotations from Hall. Despite Defendant's contentions, the Hall Court "affirmed the grant of summary judgment in a case in which excessive medical charges were alleged based on the fact that payment had voluntarily been made[,]" and not because of the existence of an express contract. Greenfield v. Manor Care, Inc., 705 So. 2d 926, 930 (4th DCA 1997) (citing Hall, 686 So. 2d at 657).

unlike the case at bar, the cases on which Defendants rely involve a simple overpayment without any allegations of fraudulent or inequitable conduct. See Berry, 497 F. Supp. 2d 1361. The Amended Complaint contains sufficient allegations to demonstrate that such causes of action may be asserted, and Plaintiffs do not need to elect remedies at this juncture.

H. Fla. Stat. § 620.8701(4) Does Not Apply to Defendants

Defendants claim that Fla. Stat. § 620.8701(4) precludes the assertion of claims against them. However, as previously discussed, Section 620.8701 has been waived by Section 10.02 of the Partnership Agreements. ¹⁶

Moreover, Fla. Stat. § 620.8703, provides that a "partner's dissociation does not, by itself, discharge a partner's liability for partnership obligation incurred before dissociation." The conflict between Sections 620.8701(4) and 620.8703 is reconciled by the fact that the indemnification obligation set forth in Fla. Stat. § 620.8701(4) only applies while to a dissociating "partner whose interest is being purchased." As the plain language of the statute indicates that it does not apply to a dissociating partner whose interest was purchased, but instead to a dissociating partner whose interest is being purchased, Fla. Stat. § 620.8701(4) does not apply to Defendants. See Daniels v. Fla. Dept. of Health, 898 So. 2d 61, 65 (Fla. 2005).

V. CONCLUSION

All in all, it is worth emphasizing that this case is unlike any possible analogy offered by Defendants whereby they are being hauled into court after many years as a result of some unexpected and long gone obligation. Defendants signed a Partnership Agreement whereby they agreed that all distributions should be shared in accordance with the terms of that Partnership

■ BERGER SINGERMAN

¹⁶ As previously discussed under 10.02 of the Partnership Agreements, "[n]o assignment, transfer OR TERMINATION of a defaulting Partner's INTEREST as provided in this Agreement shall relieve the defaulting partner from any personal liability for outstanding indebtedness, liabilities, liens or obligations relating to the Partnership that may exist on the date of the assignment, transfer, OR TERMINATION."

Agreement. Defendants intentionally chose to disregard the terms of the Partnership Agreement. Furthermore, as discussed below, Defendants agreed to a provision whereby they would be given notice of any violation of that Partnership Agreement, and be given opportunity to cure it. See Article 10 of the Partnership Agreement.

Defendants received a substantial return on their investment while other partners lost millions. While it is again, an issue of fact whether the Defendants knew that they received improper distributions – and the Conservator is continuing to uncover Sullivan's defalcations – once Defendants were affirmatively notified that she received funds that she was not entitled to (and she received that notification in November 2012), those funds should have been returned to the Partnerships. Defendants' failure to return those funds resulted in a windfall to Defendants and an injury to the Partnerships and all other partners who agreed to be bound by the terms of the Partnerships.

Based on the foregoing, Defendants have been timely brought into this Court to account for that windfall. As such, and because Defendants have failed to demonstrate, by competent evidence, that there is not a genuine issue of material fact, summary judgment is improper.

21 BERGER SINGERMAN WHEREFORE the Plaintiffs request that this Court enter an order denying Defendants' Motion for Summary Judgment, together with such other and further relief as the Court may deem just and appropriate under the circumstances.

Expert Report of Barry E. Mukamal, CPA/PFS/ABV/CFE/CFF ("Report")

I. Introduction

Pursuant to a court order entered on November, 1, 2013, Barry Mukamal and Marcum LLP (collectively "Marcum") have been retained by Messana, P.A., legal counsel for Phillip J. Von Kahle, as Conservator ("the Conservator") for P&S Associates, General Partnership ("P&S") and S&P Associates, General Partnership ("S&P"), to provide an opinion with respect to the following, which collectively are referred to as "the Issues":

- Determine if P&S and S&P (collectively, the "Partnerships") were managed in strict accordance with all of the provisions of the P&S' Amended and Restated Partnership Agreement dated December 21, 1994 (the "P&S Partnership Agreement"), and S&P's Amended and Restated Partnership Agreement as of the same date (the "S&P Partnership Agreement").
- Using sampling methodology, determine whether amounts with respect to new investment and distributions utilized by the Conservator in the calculation of distributions utilizing the Net Investment Method are generally reliable.
- Using sampling methodology, determine whether amounts with respect to S&P general partner, Guardian Angels, new investment and distributions utilized by the Conservator in the calculation of distributions utilizing the New Investment Method are generally reliable (see Attachment 4, Affidavit of Expert Barry Mukamal).

I have not been requested to, nor have I performed analysis beyond that which was required to formulate my opinions related to the Issues and matters incidental to same. The information, analysis, and opinions contained in this Report are based upon the specific facts and circumstances in this proceeding. II. Professional Qualifications of Barry Mukamal, CPA/PFS/ABV/CFE/CFF

I, Barry E. Mukamal, am a Partner in Marcum's Advisory Services Department. I am a Certified Public Accountant ("CPA") licensed in Florida. My Curriculum Vitae is attached hereto as Attachment 1 and includes additional details of my professional qualifications and experience.

I possess over 35 years of experience in the public accounting profession and financial services industry. I am accredited in business valuation ("ABV") and hold accreditation as a personal financial specialist ("PFS"), certified fraud examiner ("CFE"), and certified in financial forensics ("CFF"). Areas of expertise include financial accounting, business valuation, forensic (investigative) accounting in litigation proceedings, economic damages, bankruptcy and insolvency matters. I have been appointed and currently serve as a Bankruptcy Panel Trustee in the Southern District of Florida. My prior experience includes consulting and expert testimony in numerous arbitration and litigation matters. A list of cases in which I have previously provided expert testimony is also included in Attachment 2.

Other Marcum professionals have worked on this engagement under my supervision and direction. I have reviewed and am familiar with all such procedures performed and work product prepared. Marcum's fees for professional services provided are based on hours actually expended by each assigned staff member extended by the standard hourly billing rate for that individual. Hourly billing rates for professional staff working on this matter range from $150 to $475 Marcum has agreed to limit its fees to 85% of standard rates with a cap on total fees to complete this assignment through reporting, subject to approval of the court. Marcum's fees are not contingent on the outcome of this matter.

III. Documents Reviewed and Relied Upon

A listing of the information that I reviewed and relied upon in preparing this Report is attached hereto as Exhibit 1.

IV. Background

Both P&S and S&P were formed by Michael Sullivan ("Sullivan") and Greg Powell ("Powell") in 1992, with the stated purpose of investing in securities. In fact, P&S and S&P (collectively, the "Partnerships") invested exclusively in a Ponzi scheme perpetrated by the Bernard L. Madoff Investment Securities, LLC ("Madoff" or "BMIS"). As a consequence, profits as recorded by the Partnerships stemmed solely from investments in Madoff..

While the Partnerships themselves were victims of an investment scheme resulting in a net investment loss, losses sustained by general partners of the Partnerships ("Partners") were not proportionate to their investment. While certain Partners received distributions in excess of their investment, other Partners either received no distributions or distributions that were lower than their investment.

At the commencement of the Partnerships, Sullivan and Powell were appointed as managing general partners of the Partnerships. Powell passed away in August 2003, and Sullivan continued as the sole managing general partner of the Partnerships.

In August of 2012, certain Partners of the Partnerships filed a lawsuit alleging that Sullivan had diverted millions of dollars from the Partnerships to himself and other insiders. In January 2013, the Conservator was appointed as conservator of the Partnerships to, among other things, wind down the affairs of the Partnerships; determine how the assets of the Partnerships are to be distributed, and to effect such distributions.

In his motion for summary judgment filed on May 31, 2013, the Conservator recommended that the Court approve the Net Investment Method for distributions to Partners, which presented proposed distributions to certain Partners and proposed objections to distributions to certain Partners. On October 7, 2013 the court approved the Net Investment Method of distribution and set for trial the other outstanding issues.

V. Management of P&S and S&P by Sullivan

Analysis of Management Fees Paid by P&S to Managing General Partners

Pursuant to the P&S Partnership Agreement, Article Five, Allocations and Distributions, 20% of the capital gains, capital losses, dividends, interest, margin interest expense and all other profits and losses attributable to the partnership are to be allocated to the managing general partners (the "P&S Management Fees"), and 80% to the Partners.³ The Conservator's financial advisor, Michael Moecker and Associates ("Moecker"), provided us with spreadsheets that they prepared based on the P&S Partner Annual statements prepared by P&S (the "P&S Annual Partner Statements"), which annual statements include a summary of the annual activity for each P&S partner related to their new investments, distributions, gains/losses, management fees and expenses for each year from 1993 through 2008.

³ P&S Associates GP Amended and Restated Partnership Agreement dated December 21, 1994, Article 5.01.

Moecker also provided us with the following: list compiled by Moecker of the checks disbursed by P&S for management fees (the "P&S Management Fee Check List"); list compiled by Moecker of the P&S cash receipts from, and cash disbursements to, Madoff from 1993 through 2008 (the "P&S Madoff Cash Receipts & Disbursements List"); quarterly calculations of management fees prepared by the managing general partner from the P&S books and records (the "P&S Quarterly Management Fee Calculations"); year-end statements from Madoff titled Portfolio Management Report for 1993 through 2007 and for the quarter ending September 30, 2008 (the "Madoff Portfolio Reports"); general ledgers and check registers from the P&S books and records for various periods during 1993 through 2008 and tax returns filed by P&S for the years 1993 through 2008.

Utilizing the documents listed above we performed the following:

- Compared the gains and losses allocated to P&S Partners, in the aggregate, as reported on the P&S Annual Partner Statements prepared by the Partnerships' managing general Partners, to the Madoff Portfolio Reports and tax returns filed by P&S for years ending 1993 through 2007.⁴
- Recreated the management fee to the managing general partners reported on the P&S
 Annual Partner Statements and compared management fees reported on the P&S Annual Partner Statements to P&S Quarterly Management Fee Calculations for the fourth quarter of the following years: 2002, 2004 through 2006 and 2008.
- Compared the cash receipts and cash disbursements from the P&S Madoff Cash Receipts
 Disbursements List to the P&S Madoff Portfolio Reports for years ending 1993
 through 2007 and for the quarter ending September 30, 2008
- Compared, on an annual basis, the total cash receipts from the P&S Madoff Cash Receipts & Disbursement List to the total of new investments reported for all partners in aggregate on the P&S Annual Partner Statements for years ending 1993 through 2008
- Compared, on an annual basis, the total cash disbursements from the P&S Madoff Cash Receipts & Disbursements List to the total of distributions reported for all partners in aggregate on the P&S Annual Partner Statements for years ending 1993 through 2008
- Traced a sample of the checks on the P&S Management Fee Check List to the general ledgers to identify how the checks were recorded by P&S.

⁴ The gains/losses reported on the Madoff Portfolio Reports matched what was reported on the P&S tax returns. The gains/losses reported on the P&S Annual Partner Statements generally matched what was reported on the Madoff Portfolio Reports and P&S Tax returns, with a few immaterial exceptions.

Our observations are as follows:

- O We were able to recreate the calculation of the management fees based on 20% of the gains/losses recorded⁵ by the managing general partners on the P&S Annual Partner Statements, with the following exceptions: for 2003 Partner (Cong of the Holy Spirit Western Province Inc.) did not have management fees reported in the amount of $103 and for 2008 partner Moss was charged 10% management fees instead of 20%.
- O The total amount actually paid for management fees during the period from 1993 through 2008 ("Review Period") in the amount of $3,178,451.97 listed on the P&S Management Fees Paid List is $34,252.61 greater than the amount that should have been paid under the calculation by P&S managing general partners on the P&S Quarterly Management Fee Calculations and on the P&S Annual Partner Statements in the amount of $3,144,199.36 (see Exhibit 2).
- O P&S paid a portion of the 20% management fee directly to Kelco Foundation (total paid from 1993 -2008 is $744,799), which fees were reported by P&S on its tax returns as charitable donations. The balance of the management fees were paid to Powell and Sullivan until Powell's death in August, 2003, and to Michael D. Sullivan & Associates from September 2003 forward.
- Each of the P&S Quarterly Management Fee Calculations (as prepared by the managing general partner(s)) indicate amounts earmarked for/or to be paid to "A&B". Moecker has informed us that based on their review of the P&S books and records and other records related to Powell and/or Sullivan's other entities, A&B refers to Frank J. Avellino ("Avellino") and Michael S. Bienes ("Bienes"), parties prohibited by the SEC to participate in the sale of securities. ⁷
- O Although Article 2.02 of the P&S Partnership Agreement stated that the general purpose of the partnership was to invest, in cash or on margin, in all types of marketplace securities, during the Review Period and especially beginning in 2003, P&S did not remit all capital contributions received from its Partners for new investments. Instead P&S retained significant monies, as tabulated below.

⁵ Although certain gains were recorded by the Partnership, as previously discussed, as a consequence of exclusively investing in a Ponzi scheme, the Partnership recorded profits stemming solely from investments in Madoff.

⁶ For purposes of comparing the management fees paid to the management fees calculated, we used the management fees calculated by the managing general partners on the P&S Annual Partner Statements.

⁷ Although we identified that funds were being earmarked or paid to Avellino and Bienes from the P&S Quarterly Management Fee Calculations, investigation of amounts paid to Avellino and Bienes was beyond the scope of our engagement.

Table 1:

	Capital contributions from Partners into P&S	Monies remitted by P&S to Madoff for new investment	Monies retained by P&S for other purposes
1993 - 2002	10,278,825	(10,305,465)	(26,640)

	$ 27,654,825	$ (22,774,968)	$ 4,879,857

O Monies retained by P&S per Table 1 above, were utilized to fund cash requirements for payment of P&S Management Fees and for withdrawals by P&S' Partners, as demonstrated in Table 2 below. During the Review Period and particularly beginning in 2003, capital withdrawals (redemptions) received by P&S from Madoff were insufficient to fund disbursements for P&S Management Fees and to some extent, withdrawals by P&S' Partners. The resulting cash deficiency was funded by monies retained by P&S from Partner contributions.

Analysis of Management Fees Paid by S&P to Managing General Partners

Pursuant to the S&P Partnership Agreement, Article Five, Allocations and Distributions, 20% of the capital gains, capital losses dividends, interest, margin interest expense and all other profits and losses attributable to the partnership are to be allocated to the managing general partners (the "S&P Management Fees") and 80% to the general partners. Moecker provided us with spreadsheets they prepared based on the S&P Partner Annual statements (the "S&P Annual Partner Statements"), which spreadsheets included a summary of the annual activity (investments, distributions, gains/losses, management fees and expenses) for each general Partner from 1993 through 2008.

⁸ S&P Partnership Agreement, Article 5.02

Moecker also provided us with the following: list compiled by them of checks disbursed by S&P for management fees (the "S&P Management Fee Check List"); list compiled by Moecker of the S&P cash receipts from and cash disbursements to Madoff from 1993 through 2008 (the "S&P Madoff Cash Receipts & Disbursements List"); quarterly calculations of management fees prepared by the managing general partner from the S&P books and records (the "S&P Quarterly Management Fee Calculations"); year-end statements from Madoff titled Portfolio Management Report for 1993 through 2007 and for the quarter ending September 30, 2008 (the "Madoff Portfolio Report"); general ledgers and check registers from the S&P books and records for various periods during 1993 through 2008, S&P Annual Partner Statements for 2008 prepared by the managing general partner and tax returns filed by S&P for the years 1993 through 2008.

Utilizing the documents listed above we performed the following:

- Compared the gains and losses reported, in the aggregate, as reported on the S&P Annual Partner Statements prepared by the Partnerships' managing general partners, to the Madoff Portfolio Reports and tax returns filed by S&P for the years 1993 through 2007.9
- Recreated the management fee to the managing general partners reported on the S&P Annual Partner Statements and compared management fees reported on the S&P Annual Partner Statements to S&P Quarterly Management Fee Calculations for the fourth quarter of the following years: 2001, 2002, 2005 and 2006.¹⁰
- Compared the cash receipts and cash disbursements from the S&P Madoff Cash Receipts
 & Disbursements List to the S&P Madoff Portfolio Reports for years ending 1993
 through 2007 and for the quarter ending September 30, 2008.
- Compared, on an annual basis, the total cash receipts from the S&P Madoff Cash Receipts & Disbursement List to the total of new investments reported for all partners on the S&P Annual Partner Statements for years 1993 through 2008

¹⁰ For year ending 2002, the S&P Quarterly Management Fee Calculation was $101,481 greater than what was reported on the S&P Annual Partner Statements. It appears the difference is related to the management fee reported on the S&P Annual Partner Statement for JSP, which reflects management fees at 10% instead of 20% for one of its partners, Stacy Foundation - see footnote number 8 below.

- Compared, on an annual basis, total cash disbursements from the S&P Madoff Cash Receipts & Disbursements List to the total of distributions to reported for all partners on the S&P Annual Investor Statements for years ending 1993 through 2008
- Traced a sample of the checks on the S&P Management Fee Check List to the general ledgers to identify how the checks were recorded by S&P

Our observations are as follows:

- O We were able to recreate the calculation of the management fees based on 20% of the gains/losses recorded¹¹ by the managing general partners on the S&P Annual Partner Statements, with the following exceptions: certain partners' capital accounts reflected management fees at 10% not 20%. Investors that paid a 10% instead of 20% management fee included: Telcom Profit Sharing, Jolene & Philip Hocott and Stacy Foundation.
- The total amount actually paid for management fees during the period of 1993 through 2008 in the amount of $6,399,102.70 is $318,687.64 greater than the amount that should have been paid under the calculation on the S&P Quarterly Management Fee Calculations ("the Management Fee Overpayment"), prepared by the managing general partner and the S&P Annual Partner Statements prepared by the managing general partner in the amount of $6,080,415.06 (see Exhibit 4). 12
- Based on the S&P Annual Partner Statements for 2008, after the Madoff Ponzi scheme was publicly known, distributions were recorded ¹³ for Partners Ann or Michael Sullivan on 12/31/08 in the amount of $300,465.51 and Michael D. & L. Gail Sullivan on 12/31/08 in the amount of $31,500, (collectively referred to as the "2008 Sullivan Distributions"), which when combined total $331,966.33. Moecker has advised us that based on its analysis of the S&P books and records, including the bank statements, canceled checks, check registers and general ledgers, the 2008 Sullivan Distributions were recorded simply as a book entry, which reduced the Management Fee Overpayment

¹² For purposes of comparing the amount paid for management fee during 1993 through 2008, we utilized the management fees reported by S&P on the S&P Annual Partner Statements, which statements include certain partners' capital accounts reflecting management fees at 10% not 20%. Investors that paid a 10% instead of 20% management fee included: Telcom Profit Sharing, Jolene & Philip Hocott and Stacy Foundation.

¹³Distributions were recorded within the partner accounts and reflected on the S&P Annual Partner Statements.

and reclassify the amount as distributions. ¹⁴/¹⁵ Each of the S&P Quarterly Management Fee Calculations (prepared by the managing general partner) indicates amounts earmarked for/or to be paid to "A&B". Moecker has informed us that based on their review of the P&S books and records and other records related to Powell and/or Sullivan's other entities, A&B refers to Frank J. Avellino ("Avellino") and Michael S. Bienes ("Bienes"), parties prohibited by SEC to participate in the sale of securities. ¹⁶

Although Article 2.02 of the S&P Partnership Agreement stated that the general purpose of the partnership was to invest, in cash or on margin, in all types of marketplace securities, during the Review Period and especially beginning in 2002, S&P did not remit all capital contributions received from its Partners for new investments. Instead S&P retained significant monies, as tabulated below in Table 3 and detailed for each year individually at Exhibit 5.

O Monies retained by S&P per Table 3 above, were utilized to fund cash requirements resulting from payment of S&P Management Fees and withdrawals by S&P's Partners, as demonstrated in Table 4 below. During the Review Period and particularly beginning in 2002, capital withdrawals (redemptions) received by S&P from Madoff were insufficient to fund disbursements for S&P Management Fees and to some extent, withdrawals by

¹⁴ Investigation of how Sullivan reported the $331,966.33 on his business and/or personal tax returns was not within the scope of our engagement.

¹⁵ Based on the S&P general ledger for the period ending 12/31/08, there is a general journal entry dated 12/11/08 in the amount of $333,445.45, which decreased the management fee expense. It appears, based on our discussions with Moecker, that this book entry is related to the 2008 Sullivan Distributions reported on the S&P Annual Partner Statements.

Overall Management of the Partnerships

Appointment of Managing Partners and death of Powell

Pursuant to Section 8.01 of the P&S Partnership Agreement and S&P Partnership Agreement (collectively, the "Partnership Agreements"), "day-to-day operations shall rest exclusively with the Managing General Partners, Michael D. Sullivan and Greg Powell." According to Section 5.01, the Managing General Partners were entitled to a total of twenty percent of the capital gains, capital losses, dividends, interest, margin interest expense and all other profits and losses attributable to the Partnerships.

Under Section 8.02 of the Partnership Agreements, the Managing General Partners were "authorized and empowered to carry out and implement any and all purposes of the Partnership." While the Partnerships could have, under Section 8.06 of the Partnership Agreements, "as many Managing General Partners as the partners ... shall determine to be in the best interest of the partnership," at the commencement of the Partnerships, two Managing General Partners were appointed suggesting that management by two Managing General Partners was in the best interest of the Partnerships.

Notwithstanding the Partnerships' initial structure noted above and the requirement of Section 8.04 that quarterly meetings be held, upon the death of Greg Powell in August of 2003, we are advised that no successor Managing General Partner was ever elected nor was any Partnership meeting called by the Sullivan, the remaining Managing General Partner, to hold such election. While there does not appear to be a requirement for more than one general partner, it is unclear whether the majority of the partners must approve any changes of this nature.¹⁸

Following the death of Mr. Powell, Sullivan registered Michael D. Sullivan & Associates, Inc. ("Sullivan Inc.") in September of 2003, and, beginning in late 2003, allocated the entirety of the Managing General Partner's twenty percent share of profits to Sullivan Inc. As noted above, it is unclear whether Mr. Sullivan had this authority absent an affirmative vote of the majority of the Partners, or whether such vote was needed pursuant to section 8.06 of the Partnership Agreement(s)

Use of New Investments contributed by Partners

Section 5.02 provides that "Distributions of PROFITS shall be made at least once per year...[or] within ten (10) days after the end of each calendar quarter..." Therefore, it raises the issue of whether the Managing General Partners were required to distribute only actual 'profits' to partners, and not fresh capital contributions of other Partners into the Partnerships.

As discussed above and illustrated in Tables 1 through 4, particularly after Powell's death in 2003, it would appear that Sullivan routinely withheld Partners' fresh investments that would have otherwise been invested into Madoff, for the purposes of funding management fees or distributions to other Partners, which may not be in accordance with the Partnership Agreements.

In connection with the funds withheld from Partners' new investments to fund distributions to other Partners, since there was no cash going to or coming from Madoff, Sullivan made accounting entries to record the activity in the Partners' capital accounts and related increase/reduction of investment in Madoff.

Payments made by P&S to Kelco and tax issues

P&S made direct payments to Kelco Foundation ("Kelco") during the years 1993 through 2008 totaling $744,799.08, comprising a portion of the total management fees paid to managing general

¹⁸ Article 8.05 of the Partnership Agreements provides that an affirmative vote of 51% of the Partners (in interest, not in number) was required for the appointment of or removal of a managing general partner, and further, that the Partnerships shall have as many managing general partners as the Partners, by an affirmative vote of 51% (in interest, not in number) shall determine to be in the best interest of the Partnership.

partners. The payments made to Kelco were calculated based on a percentage of the gain related to certain Partners of P&S²⁰.

P&S reported the payments to Kelco on its tax returns as "Charitable Contribution" as opposed to their proper classification as a management fee expense. Although we have not analyzed the effect of this treatment to individual Partners, there may have been a negative tax consequence to some (or all) of the Partners for amounts that may not have been deductible due to their characterization as charitable contributions rather than management fees. Additionally, it is likely that Sullivan did not report the amounts paid to Kelco as management fee income and therefore would have received an inappropriate tax benefit in connection with the way P&S reported the payments to Kelco as charitable contributions.

Based on the foregoing analysis and observations, it appears that Sullivan did not manage P&S and S&P in strict accordance with all of Partnership Agreement'(s) provisions.

VI. Using sampling methodology to confirm amounts with respect to investment and distributions utilized in the calculation of the Net Investment Method for distribution of P&S partnership assets

Under the Net Investment Method, distributions are determined based on each Partner's net equity, which is calculated as investment less cash withdrawals or distributions. Moecker provided Marcum with a spreadsheet titled "1993-2008 by Partner Cash-In Cash-Out - Real Balance (Investment less distributions)", hereinafter referred to as the "P&S Spreadsheet". For each investor in P&S, the P&S Spreadsheet identified new investment, distributions, ending balance and cash balance carry forward, reported on an annual basis, as illustrated below:

²⁰ Based on the P&S Quarterly Management Fee Calculations, total management fees were calculated by P&S based on 20% of the total gains. Once the total management fee was calculated, a separate calculation was performed to determine the portion of the total management fee to be paid to Kelco, which calculation included 10% of the gains for the following investors: Bogaert, Bulger, HG Int'l #1, HG Int'l #2,HGF Ireland, Centro de Capacitacao, Costa, Crowley, HG Ire, Inc., Frank, HG Compassion, HG Ireland, HG Mombasa, HG Pastoral Juvenil, HG SW Brazil, Kelly, Kelly Trust, Molchan, Nickens, Paraoquia Santa Luz. See Exhibit 6 for an example of the P&S Quarterly Management Fee Calculations from the P&S books and records.

Carone Marital Trust No. 1	Total 😘 🤼		$	564,000.00	$	(176,000.00) $	388,000.0

We employed the following methodology to validate the amounts of new investment and distributions as reported on the P&S Spreadsheet:

- Step 1: Selecting an appropriate sample for testing:
 - O We assigned a sequential ID to each transaction within each investor's account history. The total count of such transactions was 630.
 - O Utilizing 95% confidence levels and 10% confidence intervals, we calculated the appropriate sample size for this population of 630 transactions to be 79 using a statistical sampling formula.
 - o Based on the above, the sample interval was determined to be 8. (630 / 79, rounded to the nearest integer).
 - O Starting with transaction ID #1, we derived a sample of 79 transactions using an interval of 8. (i.e. ID #1, #9, #17 etc.)
 - o Additionally, we extended our sample to include transactions exceeding $1,000,000. The P&S Spreadsheet included 6 such transactions; therefore our sample size was increased to 85.
 - Our selected sample of 85 transactions represented 40% of all new investments in terms of dollars (based on total new investments of $27,670,386 in the population) and 46% of all disbursements (based on total disbursements of $21,898,530 in the population).
- Step 2: For each transaction in our sample, we sought to validate the amount of new investment and/or distributions as follows:
 - Moecker provided Marcum with multiple boxes containing investor records. Specifically, these boxes were organized by year and contained bank statements, copies of checks from investors for new investment, confirmation letters to individual investors, and copies of cancelled checks with respect to investor distributions.
 - O Moecker advised that since transactions on the P&S Spreadsheet were reported on an annual basis, each transaction recorded may in fact represent multiple transactions during the same year. Therefore, testing a single transaction on the P&S Spreadsheet often involved testing numerous component transactions and was more labor intensive than anticipated, especially since investor records were not organized by investor but only by year.

- O The 85 transactions included in our sample represented new investment, distributions or both. With respect to new investment, we confirmed the amount on the P&S Spreadsheet by reviewing copies of investment check(s) from investors and corresponding deposit(s) per bank statements, further corroborated by confirmation letter(s) from P&S to individual investors.
- O With respect to distributions, we confirmed the amount on the P&S Spreadsheet by reviewing copies of cancelled checks made payable to investors and corresponding disbursement per banking records.

Our observations were as follows:

- > With respect to investor Acker's new investment of $100,000 in 2008, we were not able to locate a copy of his investment check or the confirmation letter from P&S.
- > Certain transactions represented transfers between multiple investment accounts owned by a single investor. These transactions were not supported by any documentation except transfer entries which reduced balances in the originating account and a corresponding increase in the transferee account. No exceptions were noted with respect to such transfer transactions.
- > Subject to the discussion above, no exceptions were noted in our testing of the 85 transactions comprising our sample.
- o Based on our sampling methodology, we are 95% certain that the amounts reflecting new investment and distributions in the P&S Spreadsheet are accurate subject to a margin of error of 10%.

VII. Sampling to confirm investor amounts with respect to investment and distributions utilized in the calculation of the Net Investment Method for distribution of S&P partnership assets

Moecker provided Marcum with a spreadsheet titled "1993-2008 by Partner Cash-In Cash-Out - Real Balance (Investment less distributions)", hereinafter referred to as the "S&P Spreadsheet". For each investor in S&P, the S&P Spreadsheet identified new investment, distributions, ending balance and cash balance carry forward, reported on an annual basis, as illustrated below:

	Cas	r Balance		e,
Idridge - Terminated		VEIVE SERVICE TO THE VEIVE OF T	investmenta ·	Deni	utions : Ending	Belance v
2003		$	200,000.00	$	(4,000.00) $	196,000.00
2004	$	196,000.00		$	(13,000.00) $	183,000.00
2005	$	183,000.00		$	(209,000.00) $	(26,000.00
2006	$	(26,000.00)		$	(5,228.24) $	(31,228.24
2007	$	(31,228.24)			$	(31,228.24
2008	$	(31,228.24)		J J.M		(31,228.24

We employed the following methodology to confirm the amounts of new investment and distributions as reported on the S&P Spreadsheet:

- Step 1: Selecting an appropriate sample for testing:
 - O We assigned a sequential ID to each transaction within each investor's account history. The total count of such transactions was 1,153.
 - O Utilizing 95% confidence levels and 10% confidence intervals, we calculated the appropriate sample size for this population to be 89 using a statistical sampling formula.
 - O Based on the above, the sample interval was determined to be 13. (1,153 / 89, rounded to the nearest integer).
 - O Starting with transaction ID #1, we derived a sample of 89 transactions using an interval of 13. (i.e. ID #1, #14 etc.)
 - O Additionally, we extended our sample to include transactions exceeding $1,000,000. The S&P Spreadsheet included 6 such transactions; therefore our sample size was increased to 95.
 - Our selected sample of 95 transactions represented 38% of all new investments in terms of dollars (based on total new investments of $61,974,156in the population) and 42% of all disbursements (based on total disbursements of $45,555,535 in the population).
- Step 2: For each transaction in our sample, we sought to validate the amount of new investment and/or distributions as follows:
 - Our methodology for testing the S&P Spreadsheet mirrored our testing methodology utilized for the P&S Spreadsheet, as discussed above.
 - Our observations were as follows:
 - Description of the 95 transactions comprising our sample.
- O Based on our sampling methodology, we are 95% certain that the amounts reflecting new investment and distributions in the S&P Spreadsheet are accurate subject to a margin of error of 10%.

STATE OF FLORIDA)
COUNTY OF MIAMI DADE)

BEFORE ME, the undersigned authority, duly authorized to administer oaths and take acknowledgments, personally appeared Barry Mukamal, who, upon being first duly sworn, deposes and says as follows:

- I am a certified public accountant, and a Partner with the firm Marcum, LLP ("Marcum"). On January 17, 2013 this Court entered its Order Appointing Conservator (the "Order of Appointment") Philip J Von Kahl (the "Conservator") as Conservator for P&S Associates, General Partnership ("P&S") and S&P Associates, General Partnership ("S&P") (collectively, the "Partnerships"). Among other things, the Order of Appointment directed the Conservator to make recommendations with regard to the method of distribution of the Partnerships assets to the partners.
- 2. On October 30, 2013, this court entered an Order approving the Conservators Motion to Retain and Compensate Barry Mukamal and Marcum LLP as an Expert Witness, nun pro tunc to October 1, 2013 As such, I am familiar with the matters set forth herein and submit this Affidavit of Expert.

- In connection with our employment as an Expert Witness, we were provided with a spreadsheet for S&P that was prepared by the Conservators financial advisor, Michael Moecker and Associates ("Moecker"), titled "1993-2008 by Partner Cash In Cash Out Real Balance (Investment less distributions"), hereinafter referred to as the "S&P Annual Cash In Cash Out Spreadsheet" The S&P Cash-In Cash-Out Spreadsheet summarized the annual cash contributions and withdrawals by partner for each year for the life of S&P, including partner Guardian Angel. Based on the S&P Cash-In Cash-Out Spreadsheet, partner Guardian Angel made investments in the amount of $5,188,103 52 and received total distributions in the amount of $1,298,357.21
- 4. We were also provided with a second spreadsheet for S&P that was prepared by Moecker, titled "Summary of Investments and Distribution" (the "S&P Detail Investment & Distribution Spreadsheet"), which spreadsheet included the detail for the new investments in the amount of $5,188,103.52 and distributions in the amount of $1,298,357.21 related to partner Guardian Angel.
- Using the S&P Detail Investment & Distribution Spreadsheet, we selected a statistical sample of the new investments and distributions related to partner Guardian Angel to achieve a 95% confidence level and 90% confidence intervals. We determined a sample size for testing of 68 transactions. For each transaction in our sample, we proceeded to confirm the amount of the investments and distributions listed on the S&P Detail Investment & Distribution Spreadsheet as follows.

- a. Moecker provided Marcum with multiple boxes containing investor records. Specifically, these boxes were organized by year and contained bank statements, copies of checks from investors for new investment, confirmation letters to individual investors, and copies of cancelled checks with respect to investor distributions.
- b. With respect to investments, we agreed the amount on the S&P Detail Investment & Distribution Spreadsheet to copies of investment check(s) from investors and corresponding deposit(s) per bank statements, further corroborated by confirmation letter(s) from S&P to individual investors.
- c. With respect to distributions, we agreed the amounts detailed on the S&P Detail Investment & Distribution Spreadsheet by reference to copies of cancelled checks to investors and corresponding disbursement per banking records.
- d. The S&P Annual Cash-In Cash-Out and S&P Detailed Investment & Distribution Spreadsheet exclude false profit, including the false profit related to the partners that were transferred to Guardian Angel through journal entries.²
- 6 As a result of the testing described above, no exceptions were noted.
- Based upon my analysis and testing, in my opinion the amounts included for investments of $5,188,103.52 and distributions of $1,298,357.21 in the S&P Annual Cash-In Cash-Out Spreadsheet and S&P Detail Investment & Distribution Spreadsheet for partner Guardian Angel are reliable.

¹ JS&P banking was conducted through S&P bank accounts, therefore we were provided with S&P bank records. Additionally, we were also provided with Guardian Angel bank statements for the following periods, 6/1/06 – 4/30/13, which statements were incomplete in that the majority of the periods did not include canceled checks or deposit detail Guardian Angel did not provide bank statements for periods before June 1, 2006.

STATE OF FLORIDA) .SS COUNTY OF BROWARD)

BEFORE ME, the undersigned authority, personally appeared Philip von Kahle, who deposes and states:

- 1. I, Philip von Kahle, am above the legal age of majority and otherwise competent to make this affidavit. I make this affidavit of my own personal knowledge, except where otherwise indicated.
- 2. On January 17, 2013, I was appointed as Conservator (the "Conservator") of P&S, General Partnership ("P&S") and S&P General Partnership ("S&P") (collectively, the "Partnerships").
- 3. I was appointed as successor to Margaret Smith, who did not have a complete copy of the books and records of the Partnerships. Instead Michael D. Sullivan ("Sullivan") possessed all of the Partnerships' books and records and refused to turn them over.
- 4. As a result of Sullivan's conduct, I did not have complete access to the books and records of the Partnerships when I was appointed by the Court, and did not receive all of the books and records of the Partnerships from Sullivan until 2013. I did not receive a significant portion of the Partnerships' books and records until after May 16, 2013.
- 5. However, I did not receive a complete production of documents until after August 19, 2013, when the Court entered an Order Compelling Michael Sullivan to Authorize the Conservator Access to Financial and Insurance Information. A true and correct copy of that Order is attached hereto as Exhibit A.
- 6. It took several months, after receipt of the Partnerships' books and records, from Sullivan to determine the exact amount that the partners who received more than their capital contributions retained.

7. In May of 2013, after reviewing and reconstructing the Partnerships' books and records, in furtherance of my appointment as Conservator of the Partnerships I elected to begin the process of winding the Partnerships down under Florida law.

8. To that end, I filed a Motion to Approve Plan and Distribution and Establish Objection Procedure, seeking Court authorization to wind-down the Partnerships, and Court approval of the net-investment method for the distribution of the Partnerships assets. A true and correct copy of the Motion to Approve Plan and Distribution and Establish Objection Procedure, is attached hereto as Exhibit B.

9. On October 7, 2013, the Court entered an Order on Motion for Summary Judgment, which approved of the "net-investment" method of distribution assets, and permitted me to start the process of winding down the Partnerships.

10. Thus, after October 7, 2013, and I began the process of winding down the Partnerships, because I obtained Court approval to wind down the Partnerships.

11. The Partnerships were never limited partnerships, but were general partnerships.

12. The documents attached to the Responses to the Motions for Summary Judgment are business records which were kept and maintained in the ordinary course of business.

NOTICE OF DEADLINE TO RESPOND (IN SUPPORT OR OPPOSITION) TO THIS MOTION

This Court's Second Order Resetting Deadlines and Case Management Conference provides that interested parties shall have until June 30, 2013 to file any responses and/or objections to this Motion. It is anticipated that the Court will rule on how the funds the Conservator is holding should be distributed. Failure to respond and/or object may result in a waiver of certain rights.

CONSERVATOR'S MOTION FOR SUMMARY JUDGMENT TO: (i) APPROVE DETERMINATION OF CLAIMS, (ii) APPROVE PLAN OF DISTRIBUTION, AND (iii) ESTABLISH OBJECTION PROCEDURE

Philip J. von Kahle (the "Conservator"), as Conservator for P&S Associates, General Partnership ("P&S") and S&P Associates, General Partnership ("S&P) (together, the "Partnerships"), by and through undersigned counsel, pursuant to the Conservator Order (as defined below) hereby files the Conservator's Motion for Summary Judgment to: (i) Approve Determination Claims; (ii) Approve Plan of Distribution, and (iii) Establish Objection Procedure (the "Distribution Motion"), and in support thereof states as follows:

I. BRIEF STATEMENT OF UNDISPUTED FACTS

The Partnerships were each victims in what has become known as the largest fraud in human history, the Bernard L. Madoff Investment Securities LLC ("BLMIS") ponzi scheme (the "Ponzi Scheme"). Most of the Partnerships' many general partners (the "Partners") were, in turn, victims of the Ponzi Scheme.

However, as some Partners received cash distributions and others rolled their paper "profits" back into their investment, the Partners have not borne the Partnerships' losses equally.

Some of the Partners lost their entire investments; others received millions of dollars more than their investments. For this reason and others, the Partners may have different views on how to distribute the Partnerships' remaining assets.¹

In July of 2012, the Partnerships commenced the instant interpleader action principally seeking judicial oversight and direction as to the appropriate method of distributing the Partnerships' remaining assets (the "Interpleader Action").

In August of 2012, certain Partners filed a lawsuit against the Partnerships' Managing General Partner, Michael Sullivan.² This lawsuit alleges, among other things, that Mr. Sullivan diverted millions of Partnership dollars to himself and other insiders.

In the Conservator Suit, the plaintiffs requested, inter alia, the appointment of a neutral professional to take over the Partnerships, to pursue the Partnerships' best interests, and to report to this Court and the Partners.

¹ Likewise, the Partners may have different views on whether Partners are entitled to keep distributions received in excess of their investments.

² Matthew Carone, et. al. v. Michael D. Sullivan, Case No. 12-24051 (07) (the "Conservator Suit").

On January 17, 2013, this Court granted the plaintiffs' request and appointed Philip Von Kahle as Conservator of the Partnerships by entering the Order Appointing Conservator (the "Conservator Order"). The Conservator Order provides, among other things, that the Conservator's duties include:

Winding down of the affairs of the Partnerships and distribution of assets of the Partnerships, including following up on the Interpleader Action filed with the Court in determining how the partnership funds are to be distributed, making all necessary and appropriate applications to the Court in order to effect such wind-down and distributions.

Conservator Order at 5.(a) (emphasis added).

On May 6, 2013, this Court entered its Second Order Resetting Deadlines and Case Management Conference in the Interpleader Action (the "Management Order"). The Management Order requires the Conservator to submit his recommendations with respect to distribution by May 31, 2013. The Management Order allows interested parties to file responses (in support or objection) to the Distribution Report through and until June 30, 2013.

The purpose of this Distribution Motion is to explain the Trustee's proposed method of distribution and the basis for the same, and to describe the objection procedure for parties-in-interest to respond to the proposed distribution plan. To that end, this Distribution Motion: (i) provides the relevant background and the Partnerships' relationship to the Madoff Ponzi; (ii) identifies the Partnership Property; (iii) explains the method of determining whether a Partner is eligible to receive a distribution; (iv) describes distribution methods available to the Conservator; (v) explains why the particular distribution method was selected by the Conservator; and (vi) proposes an equitable and efficient objection procedure.

II. RELEVANT BACKGROUND

Partnerships Invest in the BLMIS Ponzi Scheme

The Partnerships were formed pursuant to written partnership agreements dated December 11, 1992. In 1994 the partnership agreements were amended (the "Partnerships Agreements).³ The Partnerships' stated purpose was to invest in securities. In practice, the Partnerships invested exclusively in BLMIS.

In late 2008 it was discovered that BLMIS was a ponzi scheme orchestrated by, among others, Bernard Madoff. Thereafter, a liquidation proceeding was commenced in the Southern District of New York to liquidate BLMIS pursuant to the Securities Investment Act ("SIPA") (the "BLMIS Liquidation").

Conservator is Appointed Over the Partnerships

On August 24, 2012, certain of the partners of the Partnerships instituted the Conservator Suit. The Conservator Suit sought, among other things, to enjoin the Managing General Partner of the Partnerships, Michael D. Sullivan ("Sullivan"), from exercising control over the Partnerships, their books and records, and their assets. The plaintiff's in the Conservator Suit also sought the appointment of a receiver over the Partnerships.

As previously discussed, this Court appointed the Conservator over the Partnerships in the Conservator Suit. As part of his duties, this Court tasked the Conservator with advancing the Interpleader Action and with making recommendations with regard to the method of distribution of assets to Partners.

³ Copies of the Restated Partnership Agreement of S&P ("S&P Partnership Agreement") and Restated Partnership Agreement of P&S ("P&S Partnership Agreement", collectively the "Partnerships Agreements") were attached as exhibits to the Amended Complaint in this Interpleader Action.

Consistent with the Conservator Order, this Distribution Motion advances the objective of distributing Partnership Property in a structured and judicious manner.

III. Partnership Property

The principal sources of Partnerships' Property are: (i) the claims asserted by the Partnerships in the BLMIS Liquidation; (ii) funds the Partnerships held in certain bank accounts prior to the discovery of the Ponzi Scheme; and (iii) claims and causes of action the Partnerships have against certain individuals, professionals, and entities.⁴

With respect to the Partnership claims in the BLMIS Liquidation, the Partnerships filed separate claims for the losses they incurred.

S&P filed a claim in the amount of $44,768,253.86 (the "S&P Claim") and P&S filed a claim in the amount of $18,180,533.93 (the "P&S Claim") (together, the "Partnerships' Initial Claims"). Upon information and belief, the figures used in compiling the Partnerships' Initial Claims were based on the (now admittedly false) account statements reflecting both the cash investments and "paper profits".

Initially, the Madoff Trustee denied the Partnerships' Initial Claims outright. In fact, the Madoff Trustee asserted claims against the Partnerships to avoid certain transfers and to recover monies from the Partnerships (the "Partnerships Transfer Suits").

⁴ At present, the Partnerships have filed two lawsuits seeking recovery for the Partnerships. The first is against certain insiders and affiliates of insiders of the Partnerships. The second is against certain Partners who received greater distributions from the Partnerships than the contributions they made to the Partnerships (Net Winners).

Ultimately, the Madoff Trustee entered into settlement agreements with each of the Partnerships which resolved, among other things, the Partnerships' Initial Claims and the Partnerships Transfer Suits (the "Settlement Agreements").⁵

Pursuant to the Settlement Agreements, the Madoff Trustee agreed to allow the Partnerships' Initial Claims in amounts which reflected an analysis of the Partners' net investment (total contributions less total distributions) in BLMIS. Upon information and belief, the Madoff Trustee based his analysis on all of the books and records available to him.

The S&P Claim was allowed in the gross amount of $10,131,036.00. The P&S Claim was allowed in the gross amount of $2,406,624.65 (together, the "Partnerships' Allowed Claims").

As of the date of this Distribution Motion, the Conservator has received approximately $4,519,086.93⁶ on account of the S&P Allowed Claim (including $175,000.00 as part of the SIPC claim). The Conservator has received approximately $921,183.72⁷ on account of the P&S Allowed Claim. Prior to the appointment of the Conservator certain of these funds were held by the law firm Becker & Poliakoff LLP.

Additionally, the Conservator is in possession of certain funds that were held in BB&T bank accounts of the Partnerships. For S&P, such funds were in the amount of ⁵ Copies of the Settlement Agreements were attached as Exhibit "C" to the Second Amended Complaint in the Interpleader Action.

⁶ First Interim Distribution of $466,230.28 plus Second Interim Distribution of $3,399,570.44 plus Third Interim Distribution of $478,286.21 plus $175,000.00.

⁷ Comprised of funds from the Second Interim Distribution of $807,566.97 plus Third Interim Distribution of $113,616.75.

$20,602.37. For P&S, such funds were in the amount of $610,750.87 plus $50,606.21 for a total recovery of $661,357.08.

Finally, the Partnerships assert claims or may assert claims against, among others, certain individuals who were insiders or related to insiders of the Partnerships, certain Partners who received greater distributions than they were entitled, and others.

The relevant information is summarized as follows:

	S&P Partnership	P&S Partnership
Partnerships' Initial Claims	$44,768,253.86	$18,180,533.93
Partnerships' Allowed Claims	$10,131,036.00	$2,406,624.65
Total Received on Account of Partnerships' Allowed Claims	$4,344,086.93	$921,183.72
SIPC Claim	$175,000.00	N/A
Monies Received From BB&T	$20,602.37	$661,357.08
Claims and Causes of Action held by the Partnerships	Value To Be Determined	Value to Be Determined
Interest on Funds	$4,235.00	$1,658.20

The Partnership Property may increase in the event the Madoff Trustee authorizes additional distributions on account of the Partnerships' Allowed Claims. While it is as yet uncertain, it is reasonably anticipated that the Partnerships will receive future additional distributions from the Madoff Trustee on account of their Allowed Claims. As such, the Conservator recommends consistent application of the distribution method recommended herein to all further and future distributions.

With respect to the Partnerships' claims and causes of action, the Partnerships commenced certain lawsuits which, if successful, may provide substantial additional recoveries for the Partnerships. The lawsuits are styled: Margaret Smith as General Partner of P&S Associates, General Partnership and S&P Associates, General Partnership, Plaintiffs v. Janet A. Hooker Charitable Trust, et. al., Case No. 12-034121 (07) (the "Net Winner Lawsuit") and Margaret Smith as General Partner of P&S Associates, General Partnership and S&P Associates, General Partnership, Plaintiffs v. Michael D. Sullivan, et. al., Case No. 12-034123 (07) (the "Insider Lawsuit") (together, the "Lawsuits"). The Lawsuits are currently pending in the Complex Litigation Division in the Circuit Court of the Seventeenth Judicial Circuit, in and for Broward County, Florida.

At this time, the funds available for the initial interim distribution, net of holdbacks for administrative costs and other claims, for S&P Partners is approximately $3,900,000.00.

At this time, the funds available for the initial interim distribution, net of holdbacks for administrative costs and other claims, for P&S Partners is approximately $1,000,000.00.

The Conservator's proposed interim distribution is of approximate 69.57% of all funds for P&S and 87.85% for S&P. In the BLMIS Liquidation, the Madoff Trustee has distributed only 53% percent of monies available for distribution and has reserved the remaining funds.⁸

Notwithstanding the standard set by the Madoff Trustee, the Conservator believes that the interim distribution percentages recommended here are appropriate and provide the Partnerships sufficient reserves to fund the costs associated with the administration of the Conservatorship including reserves for contingencies.

IV. PARTNER CLAIMS ANALYSIS/CAPITAL ACCOUNT

A. Overview of the Conservator's Claims Analysis

Shortly after his appointment, the Conservator received certain documents, including the available Partnerships' accounting records from GlassRatner.9 The Conservator and his professional staff at Michael Moecker and Associates, Inc. have reviewed and analyzed the Partners' interests in the Partnerships and their relative rights in the current assets of the Partnerships' Property.

To accurately determine each individual Partner's capital account, the Conservator and his team was required to recreate each account based on the total cash contributions made by the Partner and total cash distributions received by the Partner from the beginning of the Partnerships. Moreover, as the original Partnership records reflected hundreds and hundreds of transactions accounting for reductions of each Partner's capital account for fees and other costs, adjustments were required to determine each Partner's true 'net' position.

Additionally, during his investigation the Conservator discovered, among other things, (i) that certain Partners received impermissible commissions or referral fees from the Partnerships;¹⁰ and (ii) that certain Partners' accounts were moved from the Partnerships to other entities without permission.

⁹ Substantially all of the documents received from GlassRatner were in hardcopy form. The Conservator undertook significant efforts to input the relevant information into electronically analyzable format.

¹⁰ The Conservator's analysis and recommendations contemplate withholding distributions from Partners who received commissions and referral fees until a resolution of the Partnerships claims against such Partners is reached.

In connection with such discoveries, the Conservator has issued several requests for additional information from the Partnerships' principals and related entities.

In connection with such requests, the Conservator filed, among other things, motions for contempt against Michael Sullivan and Steve Jacob for failing to comply with the Conservator's demands and Court Orders.

To date, Mr. Jacob has failed and refused to turnover all of the requested materials and has objected to the Conservator's requests for information. Mr. Jacob has also opposed substantially every effort of the Conservator, including by purporting to be Managing General Partner of S&P and sending a 'Call to Action' letter with misleading information to the Partners. Mr. Jacob's actions have had a detrimental effect upon the administration of the Conservatorship and have led to increased costs and expenses for the Partnerships.

Upon information and belief, after entry of Stipulated Protective Order, Mr. Sullivan has made a good faith effort to respond to the Conservator's requests. However, it is unknown whether additional relevant information has been withheld from the Conservator. The Conservator is still in the process of reviewing the tremendous amount of information only recently turned over. 11

The Conservator has also discovered that principals of the Partnerships were associated with and paid commissions and/or referral fees to Frank Avellino and Michael Bienes ("A&B"), defendants in the Insider Lawsuit. In 1992, A&B were investigated by the SEC. "According to the SEC complaint, Avellino & Bienes had apparently been feeding funds to Madoff for years, possibly as long as thirty years, back to 1962. By the late 1980's, A&B actually had its own feeder funds, at least two smaller firms, funneling funds into it ... The SEC's primary issue with A&B was the lack of proper securities registration per the 1933 Securities Act ... The firm was shut down in 1993, an $875,000 fine was paid, and A&B and the other two feeder funs were required to return the funds to investors." Peter Sander, Madoff — Corruption, Deceit, and the Making of the World's Most Notorious Ponzi Scheme 93 (The Lyons Press 2009). The Conservator has discovered evidence that A&B were business associates with principals of the Partnerships and that certain investors in A&B's 'shut down' Madoff feeder fund were transferred to the Partnerships.

Attached hereto and incorporated by reference herein as Exhibit "A" (P&S) and Exhibit "B" (S&P) are spreadsheets reflecting the results of the Conservator's analysis (the "Spreadsheets").

Based on the review of the available documents, the Conservator has determined that the Partners generally fall within one of two classes:

- 1. The first class of Partners is comprised of Partners who contributed more cash to the Partnerships than they received distributions from the Partnerships. On a 'net' basis, these Partners Net Losers lost at least some investment dollars that originated outside of the Ponzi Scheme ("Net Loss").
- 2. The second class of Partners is comprised of Partners who received more distributions from the Partnerships than they made contributions to the Partnerships. On a 'net' basis, these Partners Net Winners received 100% of their investment dollars plus at least some amount of money ('fictitious profits') which originated from the Ponzi Scheme ("Net Winnings").

As discussed above, within each class, documents discovered by the Conservator reflect that certain Partners received impermissible commissions and/or referral fees. The Conservator recommends withholding distributions from such Partners until all such issues are fully resolved.

To protect the identities of all of the Partners, the Spreadsheets identify Partners by Investor Account Number. 12

Each of the Spreadsheets contain: 1) the Partners' Investor Account Number; 2) the amount of Net Loss or Net Winnings; 3) a proposed interim distribution amount; and 4) remarks or footnotes with specific information for certain Partners. Please note, in certain circumstances accounts held by the same investor were combined (consolidated) to reach a total 'net' figure for the particular Partner. For example, if John Doe is a Partner with two accounts: Account #1 which is a Net Winner of $10,000; and Account #2 which is a Net Loser of $15,000, Account #1 and Account #2 were consolidated resulting in John Doe being treated as a Net Loser in the consolidated amount of $5,000.

As is more fully discussed below, the Conservator recommends that the Net Losers be entitled to a claim in the amount of their Net Loss (an "Allowed Claim").

As recommended, each Net Loser shall have a claim against the particular Partnership in which they were a Partner. For clarity, S&P Net Losers will have an ¹² If you are a Partner and you do not know your Investor Account Number, please contact the attorneys for the Conservator at the undersigned law firm by calling 954-712-7400. Please have available information to help confirm your identity.

¹³ Corporate formalities have been respected such that accounts were not consolidated where an individual Partner is also the owner of an entity Partner. For Example, John Doe is a Partner with Account #1. John Doe is also the owner of Company ABC. Company ABC is a Partner with Account #2. Account #1 and Account #2 were not consolidated.

¹⁴ The right of setoff (also called "offset") allows entities that owe each other money to apply their mutual debts against each other, thereby avoiding "the absurdity of making A pay B when B owes A." Studley v. Boylston Nat. Bank, 229 U. S. 523, 528 (1913); see also Wiand v. Meeker, 8:10-CV-166-T-EAK, 2013 WL 298335 at *4 (M.D. Fla. Jan. 25, 2013) (noting that set-off is appropriate in certain instances where investors have multiple accounts).

Allowed Claim equal to their Net Loss against S&P. Likewise, P&S Net Losers will have an Allowed Claim equal to their Net Loss against P&S.

The Conservator proposes to distribute Partnership Property on a pro rata basis, to the Net Losers based on their Allowed Claims.

Until the Net Losers are made whole, the Conservator objects to all claims of Net Winners. Furthermore, pursuant to the Net Winner Lawsuit, the Partnerships have asserted claims to recover the Net Winnings paid to the Net Winners.

B. The Partners' Allowed Claims

P&S Net Losers

Based on the Conservator's analysis, there are forty-seven (47) P&S Net Losers. The Conservator recommends allowing the P&S Net Loser's Allowed Claims against P&S in the total amount of approximately $9,742,612.61. See Exhibit "A".

The Conservator respectfully requests that this Court permit distributions to the P&S Net Losers on a pro-rata basis, i.e., the P&S Net Losers will share in the distribution based on their relative net losses.

S&P Net Losers

Based on the Conservator's analysis, there are approximately fifty-seven (57) S&P Net Losers. The Conservator recommends allowing the S&P Net Loser's Allowed Claims against S&P in the total amount of approximately $20,791,854.30. See Exhibit "B".

The Conservator respectfully requests that this Court permit distributions to the S&P Net Losers on a pro-rata basis, i.e., the S&P Net Losers will share in the distribution based on their relative Net Losses.

Net Winners

At this stage, and absent distributions that would make the Net Losers whole, the Conservator respectfully recommends that this Court disallow all claims of Net Winners. Based upon the review of the Partnerships books and records, the Conservator has identified approximately ninety-seven (97) S&P Net Winners and thirty-one (31) P&S Net Winners that are not entitled to a distributive share of the Partnerships' Property. See Exhibits "A" and "B".

C. Partners Requiring Additional Disclosure

Guardian Angel Trust, LLC.

Guardian Angel appears on the books and records of S&P as a Partner.

Based upon, among other things, the Conservator's review of the available books and records of the Partnerships, it appears that certain Partners were unknowingly transferred from being partners in one of the Partnerships to being partners of Guardian Angel Trust, LLC ("Guardian Angel"). Guardian Angel appears to be an entity formed by the insiders of the Partnerships and still appears to be controlled by insiders of the Partnerships.

In fact, certain partners of Guardian Angel have contacted the Conservator in writing and have requested that he oversee the distribution to the partners of Guardian Angel.

Upon information and belief, certain individuals hold accounts in both the S&P or P&S and Guardian Angel. Consistent with the Conservator's methodology of consolidating accounts held by the same individual, the Conservator has requested that Steve Jacob ("Jacob"), the purported managing member of Guardian Angel, identify the partners of Guardian Angel and their relative interest in Guardian Angel.

To date, Jacob has failed and refused to turn over information relative to Guardian Angel. According to Jacob's May 10, 2013, Objection Response to Notice of Intent to Issuance of Subpoena Upon Guardian Angel Trust and Incorporated Memorandum of Law and Intent to File for Protective Order, Guardian Angel ceased operations on December 11, 2008.

Jacob is also a defendant in the Insider Lawsuit which alleges, among other things, that certain insiders of the Partnerships diverted millions of dollars of Partnership funds to themselves and others.

The Conservator recommends that the distribution methodology applied to the Partners of the Partnerships also be applied to the partners of Guardian Angel.

However, absent complete and full disclosure, the Conservator cannot determine the particular partners of Guardian Angel's respective Allowed Claims. Therefore, at this juncture, the Conservator respectfully recommends reserving but withholding all proposed distributions to Guardian Angel.

SPJ Limited Investments, Ltd.

SPJ Limited Investments, Ltd. ("SPJ") appears on the books and records of S&P as a Partner. It appears that SPJ was formed by insiders of the Partnerships to create a conduit for self-directed IRA monies ("IRA Investors") to be invested in the Partnerships.

Like Guardian Angel, SPJ still appears to be controlled by insiders of the Partnerships and Jacob purports to be one of its managing general partners.

Like Guardian Angel, certain partners of SPJ have contacted the Conservator in writing and have requested that he oversee the distribution to the partners of SPJ.

According to Jacob, such IRA Investors were required to go through a qualified custodian to invest in SPJ (a "Custodian"). Notwithstanding the diligent search of the Conservator and requests of Jacob to provide relevant information, the IRA Investors' Custodian(s) have not been identified. To date, Jacob has failed and refused to cooperate with the Conservator. In fact, on May 10, 2013, Jacob filed his Objection to [the Conservator's] Notice of Intent to Issuance of Subpoena upon SPJ Limited Investments and Incorporated Memorandum of Law (the "Objection"). Notwithstanding that certain of the investors of SPJ appear to be Net Losers and may be entitled to a distribution, according to Jacob "SPJ ceased operations on December 11, 2008, and is winding down is operations." Objection at 1.

Absent identification of the appropriate Custodian and confirmation that a distribution to such custodian comports with all applicable law, the Conservator recommends reserving but withholding all proposed distributions to SPJ.

V. THE CONSERVATOR'S PROPOSED PLAN OF DISTRIBUTION A. Distribution Methods Available to the Conservator

The Conservator, with the aid of counsel, has become knowledgeable of the relevant statutory and case law regarding the various methodologies applied in distributing assets to good faith investors in connection with fraudulent schemes such as the Ponzi Scheme. Certain of the methods rely on principles of equity and fairness; while other methods apply concepts of partnership law. Based upon the Conservator's review he has identified the following methods as possible distribution methodologies:

Equitable Methodologies:

- 1. Net Investment or Cash-In-Cash-Out-Method
- 2. Rising Tide Method

Partnership Law Methodologies:

- 1. Partnership Agreement Method
- 2. Statutory General Partnership Law Method

Based on his analysis of these distribution methodologies, consistent with the methodology employed by the Madoff Trustee, the Conservator respectfully recommends application of the Net Investment Method in this case. Other methodologies are described herein in order to more fully advise the Court and all the Partners of the issues the Conservator considered in reaching his recommendation.

B. Equitable Methods

In any analysis of a partners' interests in a partnership whose only source of profits was from a known ponzi-scheme, it must be admitted that the statement balances are inaccurate and any reference to 'profit' or 'interest' in such statements are falsehoods. See Focht v. Athens (In re Old Naples Sec., Inc.), 311 B.R. 607, 616-617 (M.D. Fla. 2002).

Based on a review of all available records of the Partnerships, the only source of the Partnerships' purported profits was derived from the Ponzi Scheme. Thus, any statement reflecting 'profits' or 'interest' is false.

Any equitable method of distribution therefore must accept the premise that no profits or interest was ever earned by the Partnerships, or their respective Partners.

As such, equitable methods of distribution reject account balances based on statements which include false profits.

Equitable methods seek to allow a professional fiduciary to "unwind, rather than legitimize" a ponzi scheme. In re Pearlman, 484 B.R. 241, 243 (Bankr. M.D. Fla. 2012). Additionally, "recognizing returns from an illegal financial scheme is contrary to public policy inasmuch as it legitimizes the proscribed investment scheme." In re Pearlman, 484 B.R. 241, 244 (Bankr. M.D. Fla. 2012); SEC v. Credit Bancroft, Ltd., No. 99 Civ. 11395, 2000 WL 1752979, at *40 (S.D. N.Y. Nov. 29, 2000), aff'd 290 F.3d 80 (2d Cir. 2002) ("Since all the funds were obtained by fraud, to allow some investor to stand behind the fiction that [the] the Ponzi scheme had legitimately withdrawn money to pay them 'would be carrying the fiction to a fantastic conclusion."); Focht v. Athens (In re Old Naples Sec., Inc.), 311 B.R. 607, 616-617 (M.D. Fla. 2002) ("permitting claimants to recover not only their initial capital investment but also the phony 'interest' payments they received and rolled in another transaction is illogical. No one disputes that the interest payments were not in fact interest at all, but were merely portions of other victims' capital investments").

Accordingly, the equitable methods do not credit a partner's account for the fictitious profits or interests associated with it. This approach furthers the goal of restoring a defrauded investor's principal before others receive profits and interest. In re Pearlman, 484 B.R. 241, 244 (Bankr. M.D. Fla. 2012) ("Where individuals have been similarly defrauded, all should recover their principal before any one of them recovers profits or interest.")

Under the equitable methods approach partners are only credited for dollars actually invested and any withdrawals are treated as a return of capital which reduces the partner's interest for purposes of determining distribution. When determining a distribution method equity and fairness are the overarching goals and "it is important to remember that each investor's recovery comes at the expense of the others." S.E.C. v. Byers, 637 F. Supp. 2d 16, 176 (S.D.N.Y. 2009). Ultimately, even when seeking to provide the fairest result certain partners will be disappointed and the Conservator recognizes that "when funds are limited, hard choices must be made." Official Comm. of Unsecured Creditors of Worldcom, Inc. v. S.E.C., 467 F.3d 73, 84 (2d Cir. 2006).

1. Net Investment Method

Because such statements reflect false profits and interest, certain courts have rejected methodologies based on account statements in ponzi schemes. Instead, they have applied the Net Investment Method. Under the Net Investment Method investor's, "net equity" is calculated by subtracting the amount of cash withdrawn from the amount of cash invested. Once the "net equity" is established for each particular Partner, the Conservator will determine the "total net equity".

Distributions will be based on the proportion of each Partner's "net equity" to the "total net equity", their "loss percentage". The Conservator will then apply each Partner's "loss percentage" to the total distribution to determine each individual Partners distribution.

This method has been applied with Court approval by the Madoff Trustee. In re Bernard L. Madoff Inv. Sec. LLC, 654 F.3d 229, 238 (2d Cir. 2011) ("Here, the profits recorded over time on the customer statements were after-the-fact constructs that were based on stock movements that had already taken place, were rigged to reflect a steady and upward trajectory in good times and bad, and were arbitrarily and unequally distributed among customers. These facts provide powerful reasons for the Trustee's rejection of the Last Statement Method for calculating 'net equity'").

The BLMIS court found that the Net Investment Method (or sometimes referred to as the cash-in-cash-out method) raises the "greatest number of investors closest to their positions prior to Madoff's scheme in an effort to make them whole." In re Bernard L. Madoff Inv. Sec. LLC, 424 B.R. 122, 142 (Bankr. S.D.N.Y.2010).

The 7th Circuit provides a helpful example of the Net Investment Method:

Imagine that three investors lose money in a Ponzi scheme. A invested $150,000 and withdrew $60,000 before the scheme collapsed, so his net loss was $90,000. B invested $150,000 but withdrew only $30,000; his net loss was $120,000. C invested $150,000 and withdrew nothing, so lost $150,000. Suppose the receiver gets hold of $60,000 in assets of the Ponzi scheme--one-sixth of the total loss of $360,000 incurred by the three investors ($90,000 + $120,000 + $150,000). We'll call these recovered assets "receivership assets." Under the net loss method each investor would receive a sixth of his loss, so A would receive $15,000, B $20,000, and C $25,000...

S.E.C. v. Huber, 702 F.3d 903, 904 (7th Cir. 2012)

It appears that the Net Investment Method has become the preferred method for distribution of Ponzi assets. It has been applied by several United States Circuit Courts as well as Florida Federal Courts. See, e.g., CFTC v. Topworth Int'l, Ltd., 205 F.3d 1107, 1115-16 (9th Cir. 2000) (upholding net investment method); Official Cattle Contract Holders Comm. v. Commons (In re Tedlock Cattle Co.), 552 F.2d 1351 (9th Cir. 1977) (per curium) (investors in Ponzi scheme treated pro rata on "cash-in-cash-out" basis, following Abrams v. Eby (In re Young), 294 F. 1 (4th Cir. 1923) (claimant who received back amount of his initial investment could not share in remaining funds until he had accounted for false profits, which had been paid at expense of other equally innocent investors)); Focht v. Athens (In re Old Naples Sec., Inc.), 311 B.R. 607, 616-17 (M.D. Fla. 2002) (citing SIPC v. C.J. Wright & Co. (In re C.J. Wright & Co.), 162 B.R. 597, 609-10 (Bankr. M.D. Fla. 1993)) (Ponzi scheme participants in SIPA case are entitled to receive amount invested less any payments received, not fictitious profits); Anderson v. Stephens, 875 F.2d 76 (4th Cir. 1989) (pro rata distribution based on initial investment); In re Pearlman, 484 B.R. 241, 245 (Bankr. M.D. Fla. 2012) (Granting the Trustee's Motion Establishing the Net Investment Method).

Further, the Net Investment Method which does not provide recovery to Net Winners is consistent with the principal that transfers in excess of the actual investment in the ponzi scheme are recoverable. In re Dreier LLP, 452 B.R. 391, 440 n. 44 (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. 2011) ("[V]irtually every court to address the question has held unflinchingly that to the extent that investors have received payments in excess of the amounts they have invested, those payments are voidable as fraudulent transfers.") (citation omitted).

For the same "powerful reasons" as applied in the BLMIS case, the Conservator recommends that this Court approve the Net Investment Method for distributions to Partners.

2. Rising Tide Method

Certain courts have adopted an equitable method know as the Rising Tide Method. S.E.C. v. Huber, 702 F.3d 903, 904 (7th Cir. 2012). These courts describe the Rising Tide Method as follows:

[D]istributions under the Rising Tide Method are "calculated according to the following formula: (actual dollars invested x pro rata multiplier) - withdrawals previously received = distribution amount." Commodities Futures Trading Comm'n v. Equity Fin. Grp., LLC, No. Civ.04-1512 RBK AMD, 2005 WL 2143975, at *24 (D.N.J. Sept. 2, 2005).

Like the Net Investment Method, the Rising Tide Method disregards the fictitious profits inherent in ponzi schemes, only recognizes the actual capital contributions, and treats all withdrawals as return of capital. Under both equitable methods, Net Winners do not receive any distributions until all other investors have recouped their principal. S.E.C. v. Parish, 2:07-CV-00919-DCN, 2010 WL 5394736 at *3 (Dist. S.C. Feb. 10, 2010) ("Moreover, investors who previously received payments exceeding their pro rata amount of the total distribution will receive no distribution from the receivership estate").

A key distinction in the Rising Tide Method is that not all Net Losers receive a distribution. In fact, Net Losers only receive a distribution to the extent required to make all of the Net Loser's loss percentage the same. This is because the interim distributions the partners received are treated differently.

Unlike the Net Investment Method, prior distributions from the ponzi scheme are viewed the same as distributions planned to be made after discovery of the ponzi scheme. Parish, 2010 WL 5394736 at*3. ("Payments received by the investor prior to the scheme's collapse are treated as "distributions" on par with the distributions to be made by the Receiver, so that prior amounts paid by Parish are credited against (i.e., subtracted from) the amount that would otherwise be paid from the receivership estate.")

Accordingly, the Rising Tide Method attempts to equalize the losses for each investor such that their percentage of the losses is the same. The Parish Court provided an example which highlights the differences between the Net Investment Method and the

Rising Tide Method:

The court essentially considered two investors who both invested $100,000 in a case in which the interim distribution would be approximately 30%. One of the investors received payments during the scheme of $50,000, or 50% of his investment, while the other received no payments during the scheme. If Net [Investment] were applied in such a situation, the investor who had already received 50% of his investment would nevertheless receive an additional $15,000 in a distribution from the estate ($50,000 x .30), for total returns of 65% of his investment. The investor who had not received any payments during the course of the scheme, however, would receive a distribution from the estate of $30,000, thereby only recouping 30% of his investment after the estate had been distributed.

Parish, 2010 WL 5394736 at *6. (D.S.C. Feb. 10, 2010).

Ultimately, the Conservator's analysis favors the Net Investment Method over the Rising Tide Method because the greater weight of authority opposes penalizing good faith investors who did not know of the fraudulent scheme for taking interim distributions. Compare cases cited infra at p. 19-20 (Net Investment Method, with cases cited infra at p. 21 (Rising Tide Method).

C. Partnership Law Methods

1. The Partnership Agreement Method

Florida has adopted the Revised Uniform Partnership Act in chapter 620 of the Florida statutes ("Florida RUPA"). Florida RUPA applies retroactively to general partnership formed before its adoption. Horizon/CMS Healthcare Corp. v. S. Oaks Health Care, Inc., 732 So. 2d 1156, 1159 n.4 (Fla. 5th Dist. Ct. App. 1999) ("In 1995, Florida enacted the Revised Uniform Partnership Act (RUPA), effective January 1, 1996 for general partnerships formed on or after that date. However, RUPA applies retroactively to all general partnerships, whenever they were initially formed, beginning January 1, 1998. Fla. Stat. § 620.90 (1997)").

Under Florida RUPA, partners are able to create a partnership agreement to govern the partnership rather than following the statutes. Fla. Stat. § 620.8103. However, Florida RUPA provides that certain statutory provisions may not be altered in the partnership agreements. Fla. Stat. §620.8103(1) ("Except as otherwise provided in subsection (2), relations among partners and between partners and a partnership are governed by the partnership agreement. To the extent the partnership agreement does not otherwise provide, this act governs relations among partners and between partners and a partnership.") Settlement of accounts is an area in which the partners may alter the Florida RUPA provisions.

As discussed above, P&S and S&P adopted the Partnerships Agreements. The provisions of the Partnerships Agreements are identical in all material respects. The relevant sections, for the purposes of the distribution analysis, are Article Four ("Capital Contributions"), Article Eleven ("Valuation of Partnership Interests"), Article Five ("Allocations and Distributions"), and Article Twelve ("Termination of The Partnership" and "Distribution of Assets").

Distribution according to the Partnerships Agreements would flow as follows. First, the Partnerships' liabilities must be paid first. (S&P Partnership Agreement Article 12.02); (P&S Partnership Agreement Article 12.02) ("On termination, the Partnership' business shall be wound up as timely as in [sic] practical under the circumstances; the Partnerships assets shall be applied as follows: (i) first to payment of the outstanding Partnership liabilities...").

Second, after payment of the Partnerships' liabilities then Partner's capital shall be returned in accordance with their partnership interests. (S&P Partnership Agreement Article 12.02 (ii)); (P&S Partnership Agreement Article 12.02 (ii)) ("a return of the Partner's capital in accordance with the Partnership interest").

Accordingly, based on the Partnerships Agreements the Partners would recover a pro-rata share in relation to their partnership interest, when funds are inadequate to provide 100% return of capital, because none of the Partners are entitled to priority. (S&P Partnership Agreement Article 4.04); (P&S Partnership Agreement Article 4.04) ("No partner shall have any priority over any other Partner as to allocations of profits, losses, dividends, distributions or returns of capital contributions").

Third, a Partner's partnership interest must be determined so they may receive their pro rata share. Valuation of a Partners' partnership interest is addressed in the Partnerships Agreements as:

The full purchase price of the Partnership interest of a deceased, incompetent, withdrawn or terminated Partner shall be an amount equal to the Partner's capital and income accounts as the [sic] appear on the Partnership books on the date of death, incompetence, withdrawal or termination and adjusted to include the Partner's distribute share of any partnership net profits or losses not previously credited to or charged against the income and capital accounts.

(S&P Partnership Agreement Article 11.01); (P&S Partnership Agreement Article 11.01).

The determination of a Partner's partnership interest requires calculation of a partner's capital account. A capital account is described in the Partnerships Agreements as follows:

An individual capital account shall be maintained for each Partner. The capital account shall consist of that Partner's initial capital contribution:

- a. increased by his or her additional contributions to capital and by his or her share of Partnership profits transferred to capital; and
- b. decreased by his or her share of partnership losses and by distributions to him or her in reduction of his or her capital.

(S&P Partnership Agreement Article 4.05); (P&S Partnership Agreement Article 4.05).

The Partnerships Agreement reference to the amount of the Partner's capital and income accounts as it "appear[s] on the Partnership books" suggests that the last statement received by the partners from the Partnership reflects a partner's partnership interest (the "Last Statement"). Using the last statement from a ponzi entity as the basis for determining a partner's pro rata share of a distribution is know as the Last Statement Method. Proponents of the Last Statement Method argue that the use of this method protects the ponzi investor's reasonable reliance on the statements produced by the company (however fraudulent) and accounts for the time value of money lost as a result of the investment. However, as discussed below in the "Equitable Methods" section, the Conservator finds the Last Statement Method inappropriate here because it would essentially treat the ponzi schemes fictitious profits as legitimate and allow certain Partners to recover "paper profit" before other Partners recover their principal contributions. Such a result is contrary to public policy and the Conservator's equitable position and the Partnerships' Agreements themselves.

The Partnerships' Agreements provide that the partnership interest should be "adjusted" to include "net profits or losses not previously credited or charged against the income or capital accounts." (S&P Partnership Agreement Article 11.01); (P&S Partnership Agreement Article 11.01). However, here, the Last Statement provided to the Partners is silent about net losses not previously charged against the income or capital accounts.

Accordingly, the Partner's partnership interests must be reduced to reflect the losses suffered by the Partnerships as a result of their investments in the Ponzi Scheme.

The Internal Revenue Service ("IRS") has indicated that partners of a general partnership that directly invested in a ponzi scheme, such as the Partnerships, should treat these losses as "theft losses". Revenue Ruling 2009-9. The Partnerships' Agreement approach to losses is consistent with the IRS position that theft losses should be passed through to the partners and reflected on the partner's individual returns. IRS PLR 2009-0154 ("Partnerships (or entities that may elect to be taxed as partnerships, such as limited liability companies) that qualify as direct investors may use the safe harbor treatment and pass the loss through to the indirect investor (partner)").

Additionally, the partners' capital accounts should be adjusted to reflect prior distributions as returns of capital. Perkins v. Haines, 661 F.3d 623, 627 (11th Cir. 2011) (in ponzi schemes, the general rule is that defrauded investors may receive returns of their principle investment as being for 'value'). To the extent a partner received more in distributions than actual contributions of capital, i.e. Net Winners, these partners will have negative capital accounts. Partners with negative capital accounts are not entitled to any distribution under the Partnerships Agreements until all other partners have received 100% of their capital contributions.

As a final concern with the Partnership Agreement Method here, the Partnerships' Agreements do not explicitly contemplate the present situation, i.e., negative capital accounts at the time of liquidation. Instead, one must look to the Florida RUPA default rules. Fla. Stat. §620.8103(1).

When a partner has a negative capital account at the time for liquidation, FL RUPA provides that, "a partner shall contribute to the partnership an amount equal to any excess of the charges over the credits in the partner's account." Fla. Stat. § 620.8807(2).

Accordingly, a partner with a negative capital account, a Net Winner, owes a debt to the respective partnership and is required to return their capital account to zero upon liquidation by contributing the Partnerships. This result is reflected in Uniform Comment 3 of RUPA § 807 which provides:

Any partner with a negative account balance must contribute to the partnership an amount equal to the excess of charges over the credits in the account provided the excess relates to an obligation for which the partner is personally liable under Section 306. The partners may, however, agree that a negative account does not reflect a debt to the partnership and need not be repaid in settling the partners' accounts.

RUPA § 807 Cmt. 3.

Other jurisdictions applying RUPA have reached the same conclusion. Farnsworth v. Deaver, 147 S.W.3d 662, 664-65 (Tex. App. 2004)(affirming trial court order which entered a judgment against partner with "a negative balance" based on the debt owed to the partnership "to satisfy that negative balance.")¹⁵

In this case, because certain of the Partners (the Net Winners), received more from the Partnerships than they contributed, they have negative capital accounts. 16

¹⁵ By applying Florida RUPA and interpreting the Partnerships' Agreements, the Partnership Agreement Method may result in substantially similar results as the Net Investment Method. However, while application of the Net Investment method is an entirely objective process, application of Florida RUPA and interpretation of the Partnerships' Agreements requires legal application of contractual terms and may be subject to dispute. Moreover, under the Partnership Agreement Method, each Partner's capital account must be brought into equilibrium prior to making any distribution, i.e., Net Winners would have to give back their Net Winnings. To best serve the Partners and effectuate a timely distribution of the Partnerships Property, the Conservator recommends application of the Net Investment Method.

¹⁶ Recovery of transfers to the Net Winners is the subject of a related case styled: Margaret Smith as General Partner of P&S Associates, General Partnership and S&P Associates, General Partnership, Plaintiffs v. Janet A. Hooker Charitable Trust, et. al., Case No. 12-034121 (21) (the "Net Winners Suit")

Accordingly, the Net Winners are not entitled to distributions of Partnership Property and are required to contribute the amount necessary to bring their capital accounts to zero.

2. General Partnership Law under Florida RUPA

Application of Florida RUPA provides for a similar outcome as the Partnerships Agreement Method.

First, like the Partnerships' Agreements, Florida RUPA requires that the Partnerships' liabilities be paid before distributing to the partners. Fla. Stat. § 620.8807 ("In winding up a partnership's business, the assets of the partnership, including the contributions of the partners required by this section, must be applied to discharge the partnership's obligations to creditors").

Second, like the Partnerships' Agreements, after creditors are paid the remainder of the partnership property is liquidated and partners receive cash payments. Fla. Stat. § 620.8807(1) ("Any surplus must be applied to pay in cash the net amount distributable to partners in accordance with their right to distributions under subsection (2)").

Florida RUPA provides, "in settling accounts among the partners, profits and losses that result from the liquidation of the partnership assets must be credited and charged to the partners' accounts. The partnership shall make a distribution to a partner in an amount equal to any excess of the credits over the charges in the partner's account but excluding from the calculation charges attributable to an obligation for which the partner is not personally liable under s. 620.8306." Fla. Stat. §620.8807(2).

presently pending in the Complex Litigation Division in the Circuit Court of the Seventeenth Judicial Circuit, in and for Broward County, Florida.

Accordingly, where there are insufficient funds partners to return 100% of a partner's capital, partners are entitled to a pro rata share of the distribution based upon their capital accounts. Further, as addressed by the IRS, the fictitious profits should be excluded from the capital account total and prior distributions should be treated as returns of capital which reduce the balance. These losses should be passed through to the individual partners.

As addressed above, because certain of the Partners (the Net Winners), received more from the Partnerships than they contributed, they have negative capital accounts. Accordingly, the Net Winners are not entitled to distributions of Partnerships Property until all other parties have received 100% of their actual contribution. Further, pursuant to Florida RUPA Net Winners are required to contribute the amount necessary to bring their capital accounts to zero. Fla. Stat. §620.8807(2) ("A partner shall contribute to the partnership an amount equal to any excess of the charges over the credits in the partner's account.")

After review of the Partnership Agreements, Florida RUPA, and the Equitable Distribution Methodologies, the Conservator has determined that the Net Investment Method most completely accounts for the losses suffered by the Partners, its application is objective in nature and is not influenced by subjective considerations, and it can be applied quickly and efficiently. For these reasons and others, the Net Investment Method ought to be applied in this matter.

VI. OBJECTION PROCEDURE

To fairly and efficiently administer the Partnership Property, this Court established a procedure for Partners to respond to the recommendations contained herein.

The Management Order provides any interested party must file a response and/or objection to this Distribution Motion no later than June 30, 2013.

To provide interested parties with notice, within three (3) business days of the date of this Distribution Motion, the Conservator will post this Distribution Motion on his website, www.FloridaConservator.com (the "Conservator Website"). 17

Failure to properly and timely serve a response and/or objection to this Motion should be deemed acceptance of the Conservator's recommendations and determination of any particular Partner's Allowed Claim.

Further, by filing and serving an objection, any objecting partner shall be deemed to have submitted to the jurisdiction of this Court irrespective of whether such Partner was served with a copy of the Summons or Complaint in the Interpleader Action. A person filing and serving an objection to the Conservator's Claim Determination or plan of distribution, shall be entitled to notice, but only as it relates to adjudication of the particular objection and the claim to which the objection is directed.

The Conservator may attempt to settle and compromise any claim or objection subject to the Court's final approval.

WHEREFORE, the Conservator respectfully requests that this Court enter an Order: (i) Approving the Conservator's determination of Allowed Claims as set forth in herein and in attached Exhibits "A" and "B"; (ii) Approving the Net Investment Method as set forth herein and in the attached Exhibits "A" and "B" as the proper method for determining the Partners'

¹⁷ Previously, this Court authorized the Conservator to provide partners with notice by posting on the Conservator Website in the Conservator Case. Specifically, the Conservator Order provided that "any posting on the website will be deemed adequate notice to all Partners unless a Partner specifically request information to be mailed to him/her." Conservator Order at ¶13.

Allowed Claims; (iii) Approving the amount of initial distributions to Net Losers as proposed herein and pursuant to Exhibits "A" and "B"; (iv) Approving withholding distributions to certain Partners as proposed herein and identified on Exhibits "A" and "B"; (v) Authorizing the Conservator to make the interim distributions to the Partners as proposed herein pursuant to Exhibits "A" and "B" within a reasonable time of the entry of an Final Non-Appealable Order granting this Distribution Motion; (vi) Approving the Objection Procedure proposed herein; and (vii) for any further relief that this Court deems necessary and appropriate.

I make this affidavit of my own personal knowledge, except where otherwise indicated, in support of Plaintiffs' Response to Defendant Holy Ghost — Western Providence's Motion for Summary Judgment.

CASE NO.: 12-034121 (04)

Advisory and Capital Group, LLC ("GlassRatner"). Non-managing partners of P&S Associates, General Partnership ("P&S") and S&P Associates, General Partnership ("S&P," collectively the "Partnerships") retained GlassRatner to investigate certain matters concerning the operation and management of the Partnerships. On August 17, 2012, the partners of S&P and P&S held a meeting at which the Partnerships' former Managing General Partner, Michael D. Sullivan ("Sullivan"), was replaced, and I was elected Managing General Partner in his stead.

3. Only after reviewing and analyzing books and records that were received from Sullivan after August 2012, in conjunction with documents received in approximately May 2012, was it established that certain partners received distributions from the capital contributions of other partners and that certain partners received money in excess of their contributions to the Partnerships.

4. Once the identities of those partners was discovered, on November 13, 2012, as Managing General Partner of the Partnerships, I sent out demand letters to partners who received distributions in excess of their contributions. A copy of one such a demand letter is attached hereto as Exhibit A.

5. To date, and to the best of my knowledge, no partner who received a demand letter has returned any of the distributions that they received in excess of their contributions.

FURTHER AFFIANT SAYETH NAUGHT.

Dear Sir or Madam:

Please be advised that on August 29, 2012, Michael D. Sullivan resigned and Margaret J. Smith was appointed as Managing General Partner of P&S Associates, General Partnership ("P&S" or the "Partnership"), Pursuant to ¶8.02 of the Amended and Restated Partnership Agreement dated December 1994, "the Managing General Partner [is] authorized and empowered to carry out and implement any and all purposes of the Partnership including but not limited to (d) "to take any actions and to incur any expense on behalf of the Partnership that may be necessary or adviseble in connection with the conduct of the Partnership's affairs".

Review of the Partnership books and records as of December 31, 2008 indicates you received funds in excess of contributions totaling $182,532,35. Enclosed for your reference as Exhibit A is the detail of the funds contributed and funds disbursed from your capital account from December 1992 through December 2008. The immediate return of funds totaling $182,532.35 to P&S is hereby requested.

To encourage a speedy and effective resolution of this matter prior to the commencement of litigation against you, we will accept $164,279.12 in full satisfaction of the amount claimed, if paid within 10 calendar days of the date of this letter. This represents a 10% discount of the amount which the Partnership may sue you for if this matter is not resolved as set forth above.

Accordingly, we demand payment of $164,279.12 in immediately available U.S. funds within 10 calendar days of the date of this letter, payable to:

Berger Singerman, LLP Trust Account Attn: Eten Mark, Esq. 1450 Brickell Avenue Suite 1900 Miami, FL 33131

In the absence of a timely, conforming payment, Berger Singerman, on behalf of P&S, will take appropriate action, including the filling of a Complaint seeking recovery of all sums due, plus interest and costs of collection.

Exhibit "A"

Dear Greg:

With reference to our recent conversation regarding the closing of my account when you liquidate the partnership at the end of the year, it occurred to me that I would like to use a portion of the money for Christmas. Would you send me a check for $50,000.00 at this time. The balance could then be sent at the later date.

Thank you.
