AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSES

1. Statute of Limitations. Plaintiffs' claim for breach of statutory duty under Ch. 620 (Count 1) is time-barred by the statute of limitations for claims against dissociated partners. Plaintiffs' claim for breach of contract (Count 2) is time barred by the statute of limitations set forth in section 95.11(2)(b), Florida Statutes. Plaintiffs' claims for unjust enrichment (Count 3) and money had and received (Count 4) are time barred by the statute of limitations set forth in section 95.11(3), Florida Statutes. Plaintiffs' claim for avoidance of fraudulent transfer (Count 5) is time barred by the statute of limitations set forth in section 726.110(1), Florida Statutes.

2. Limitation of Liability. Plaintiffs' claims are barred because the P&S and S&P Partnership Agreements limit claims against Defendant to the following:

The Partners shall have no liability to the partnership or to any other partner for any mistakes or errors in judgment, nor for any act or omissions believed in good faith to be within the scope of authority conferred by this agreement. The Partners shall be liable only for acts and/or omissions involving the intentional wrongdoing, fraud, and breaches of fiduciary duties of care and loyalty.

See P&S and S&P Partnership Agreements §§ 14.03 (emphasis added). Plaintiffs do not allege, nor could they allege, any intentional wrongdoing, fraud, or breach of the duty of care/loyalty on the part of Defendant in connection with her receipt of the funds that are the subject of the litigation. As such, Plaintiffs' claims fail as a matter of law.

3. Express Contract. Plaintiffs' equitable claims for unjust enrichment (Count 3) and money had and received (Count 4) fail as a matter of law because there is an express contract governing the rights and obligations of the Partnerships and Defendant.

4. Good Faith Transferee. Defendant received the payments in question with actual good faith and lack of knowledge regarding the activities of the Managing General Partners of S&P and/or P&S and Bernie Madoff. As such, Plaintiffs' claim for avoidance of fraudulent transfer (Count 4) fails as a matter of law.

5. In Pari Delicto. To the extent that this Court finds that the Defendant committed any of the purported wrongdoings alleged by Plaintiffs - and she did not - Plaintiffs are not entitled to any recovery because Plaintiffs were in pari delicto. Plaintiffs knew of, actively participated in, and benefitted from the purported wrongdoings as alleged by the Plaintiff.

6. Unclean Hands. Plaintiffs' equitable claims for unjust enrichment (Count 3) and money had and received (Count 4) are barred as a matter of law because the Plaintiff has unclean hands by its own inequitable conduct in the course of performing its obligations under the P&S and S&P Partnership Agreements.

7. Equitable Estoppel. Plaintiffs are not entitled to any recovery and is equitably estopped from asserting its claims due to its engagement in inequitable (and/or bad faith) conduct in the course performing its obligations under the P&S and S&P Partnership Agreements.

8. No Claim by P&S. Plaintiffs' Exhibit A to the Amended Complaint makes clear that Defendant never invested in P&S, nor received any disbursements from P&S. As such, any claims by P&S against Defendant fail as a matter of law.
